

George-Town College.

In the District of Columbia, U. States of America under the direction of the Incorporated Catholic Clergy of the State of Maryland.

I. The annual Pension of this establishment is two hundred and twenty dollars; but for children under twelve years of age, only two hundred dollars will be required. Those Students who continue their Education through the Classes of Philosophy shall, on account of extraordinary expenses, and some particular indulgences allowed them, pay two hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

The pension is to be paid half-yearly in advance. A deduction of fifty dollars per annum will be allowed to those Parents who may choose to charge themselves with the detail of clothing their children. The College will furnish washing and mending, but will not keep particular accounts, or become answerable for clothing provided by parents.

II. In lieu of bed-linen, table-service, school books, and other articles usually required on entering establishments of this kind, each pensioner shall pay ten dollars entrance money. III. The Sunday or Holiday Dress is uniform, and consists of a plain coat and pantaloons of blue cloth, with yellow buttons, and red cloth or kerseymer waistcoat. The use of silk is not permitted. Every Student shall bring with him his uniform dress, besides a suit for daily wear, six shirts, six handkerchiefs, six pair of stockings and three pair of shoes, all new. Any deficiency in the above will be charged to the parents.

IV. On the above terms the Students are furnished with clothes, linen, washing, mending, lodging, board, fire, candles, table, school-books, pens, ink, paper, amusements and school rewards; so that nothing will remain to the charge of Parents, but medical attendance and medicines, postage, and such extra lessons of Drawing, Dancing Music, &c. as they may choose to order for their children.

V. The Religion, uniformly practised by the Students living in the College, is the Roman Catholic; but for Students of other religious persuasions there are boarding houses convenient to the College, where they will be subject to the same rules (religion excepted) and enjoy the same advantages for their improvement in Latin, as the Pensioners of the College.

VI. Out-Boarders must be furnished by their Parents with the uniform of the College, and pay annually for tuition, fire, candles, school-books, pens, ink, paper, amusements, school-reward, &c. fifty dollars, always half yearly in advance.

VII. The Students are taught English, French, Latin, Greek, and all the branches of Classical Education, sacred and profane History, Geography, the use of the Globe, Arithmetic, Algebra, Geometry, with all other parts of the Mathematics, in the respective Classes. Four times a year the Students are called to a public examination of what they have been taught, before Parents and the Friends of the Students. Those who have made extraordinary progress, are honored and rewarded. The idle, for punishment, are confined in the vacation to certain extraordinary hours of study during play time, in order to repair what they have neglected to learn in schools; therefore if they are found deficient in the last and most important examination of the year, before the August vacation, they will not be allowed to go home during that time.

VIII. The age of admission is from eight to fourteen—When children are not sufficiently advanced to begin a regular course of classical education, they are placed in an elementary class, attended by a particular teacher, from whom they learn to spell, read and write. Special care is taken that they learn to read well, and write a good hand, and that they speak and write French with accuracy.

IX. If the children sent to this College have been before at any other house of education, an attestation of their morals and docility will be required. X. The greatest care is taken to instruct the children in the duties of religion and morality; and they are constantly under the eye of one or more of the Professors, who see that those duties are practised, and that the rules of civility are not violated.

XI. Cleanliness, exercise and whatever contribute to health, are attended to with particular care.

XII. All the pensioners dine and sup with their professors, and have the same table which they have. No distinctions are allowed in diet or clothing.

XIII. As long experience has convinced the Directors, that a profusion of pocket-money is very prejudicial, not only to good order, but even to study and application, they therefore request, that Parents will not be too indulgent to their children in this particular.

XIV. No allowance is made for absence during the vacation, which begins on the 15th of August, and ends on the 15th of September. To these terms, Parents are desired to be particularly attentive, in case they choose to call their children home, as the absence of a few weeks at the opening of schools, is seldom repaired without very great difficulty.

XV. When children are removed from the college, whatever new linen or clothes are furnished them on that occasion, will be charged to their Parents. After entering on a new quarter, no deduction will be made for the remaining part thereof.

The College is a large building, capable of lodging two hundred persons conveniently. The garden and court adjoining, where the young gentlemen play, are very airy and spacious. The situation is very pleasant and healthy.

It will contribute much to the advantage of the children; if Parents, on sending them, will inform the President how long they propose to leave them at the College, and for what employments in life they are designed. The regular course of education is properly classical; but such as are destined for the commercial line, have a lesson of Arithmetic and Book-Keeping, under a particular professor appointed for that purpose.

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues; have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils, I have no need—it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.
