150 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY the 1st July, 1866, from the subscriber living in Anne Arundel county, Patuxent Neck, near Hawkins Point, within ten miles of Baltimore, Maryland, a likely young negro man named BOB, but sometimes calls himself Bob Miller; is tolerable black, straight made fellow, with a smiling countenance when spoken to; has a remarkable scar on the lower part of the back of his neck, near the size of a cent, under his shirt collar; he was raised to the farming business; in the twenty fourth year of his age, about five feet nine or ten inches high; had on when he went off, a high crowned felt hat, with a band & buckle; an over round coat, deep blue mixed, strong cloth, doubled at each elbow and the left shoulder; oxburg shirt and hempen linen trousers. I expect he will change his name and clothes as he did when he ran off before: he changed his name to Nicholas Johnson. I presume he has procured a forged pass from his infamous connections in the neighborhood where he lived. ## PROPOSALS FOR PUBLISHING A Geographical Description

OF ALL THE
STATES AND TERRITORIES
IN THE UNION,
In separate volumes; with a particular and correct description of the several counties and towns, in each state illustrated with Maps.

BY JOSEPH SCOTT,
Author of the United States Gazetteer, the Modern Geographical Dictionary, 4 vols 8vo. a Geographical Dictionary of the United States of North America, &c. &c.
The geographical description of each of the larger states, with the counties, towns, &c. will form a neat little volume of about 150 pages. Two of the smaller states may form a volume, or one of them may be comprised in the same volume with a larger adjoining state, as Maryland and Delaware.

Each volume will be complete in itself; so that subscribers may take one, two, or the whole number. The paper, type and size of the page, will exactly correspond with the description of Pennsylvania, now published; so that subscribers for the whole may have two or more bound together to suit their own taste. They will be published neatly done up in boards.

The description of each state will be embellished with a handsome map.
It is supposed that the whole will amount to about fourteen little volumes. A general description of the United States will be given in the last, which will render the whole the fullest, and most correct geographical description of the United States, that has hitherto been published.

The plan, which the author has adopted, is the most comprehensive that could be suggested, as it will comprise under proper and distinct heads, every thing worthy of notice.
No money will be required till on the delivery of the work.

The Price of each Volume will be Fifty Cents.

The next volume will contain,
A Geographical description of Maryland and Delaware, illustrated with a Map of each state.
The work is nearly ready for the press, and will soon be published.

500 Dollars Reward.

IT appears that Messrs. WALKER and KENNEDY put two letters into the Post-Office at Philadelphia on the 30th and 31st of July last, addressed to Messrs. JAMES & JOHN DENLOW, at Petersburg, Virginia, each letter containing 2000 dollars in bank notes, which have probably been stolen from the mail. Whoever will discover and prosecute the thief or thieves to conviction shall be entitled to the above reward.

GIDEON GRANGER,
Post-Master-General.

General Post-Office,
September 22, 1866.

One of the notes transmitted in the letter of the 31st of July, has been found in circulation, it is probable that others are also circulated; any person who may have either of the notes mentioned in the following list is requested to advise the Post-master-general of it, mentioning any circumstances that may enable him to trace the subject.
List of Bank Notes remitted the 30th of July, 1866.
