WILLIAM HAWKINS for Elector, and THOMAS HILL and RICHARD BENSON, for members of the first branch of the city council, will be supported by a number of voters of the FOURTH WARD.

Mr. Pechin,

AS the day of election is at hand, I would wish through the medium of the American, to recommend the following gentlemen for the consideration of my fellow-citizens as worthy of the confidence: For congress, Messrs. N. R. MOORE and JOSHUA BARNEY, two old, brave and much respected revolutionary officers; their heroism, merits and good conduct is well known in this district—therefore, let us not forget old services when we go to the polls. And for the assembly I would name THEODORIC BLAND and ROBERT STEWART, men of information and respectability, that will serve us faithfully. Elect it. And for Sheriff let every man make his own choice.

HOME SPUN.

The schooner Eliza, Pezzy, of 16 guns and 42 men, belonging to this port, from Gonaives for St Bartholomews, with cotton and coffee, detained by the Wolf British sloop of war, arrived at Port Royal on the 4th instant. She had one man killed and one wounded by a shot from the Wolf in firing her to.

A part of the crew of the French ship L'Hoptoux, destroyed on Cockburn's Island, arrived at Annapolis, and are on board the L'Patriote and L'Dole.

COMMUNICATED.

Sporting Intelligence.

Canton Race-Course, October 6th—Twenty-one horses have appeared and will again appear this evening, as candidates for the purses at the ensuing races; amongst which are some of the best from various parts of the continent, which have been brought in great state to take the racing at Canton, this fall much superior to any heretofore seen in Maryland. The names of the horses together with a description of the riders' dresses shall be given to-morrow. B

By capt. Dunn's Norfolk packet, arrived on Saturday, we have received the Public Ledger of Friday. The annexed articles are all it offers.

NORFOLK October 3.

Yesterday arrived here the ship Hull, of Boston, Ruby, from Copenhagen. On the 21st of last month, off the Havre, was spoken by his Britannic majesty's brig Port Mahon, from which he was informed, that a few days previous a French line of battle ship had got into Havana, after having exchanged some broadsides with the Anson frigate.

This, we have no doubt, is the Pultusky 74, chased
