Veneral Disease. To whom this may unfortunately concern, are informed that a fresh supply has now been received.

INDIAN VEGETABLE SPECIFIC. THE experience of several thousands who have been cured by this medicine (a great proportion of them after the skill of eminent physicians had proved ineffectual), demonstrates its efficacy in expelling the Venereal poison, however deeply rooted in the constitution, and in counteracting those dreadful effects which often result from the improper use of mercury. The mildness of the vegetable Specific is equal to its surprising efficacy; its operation is so gentle that it is given to venereal patients in a state of pregnancy, with the utmost safety, and performs a cure without disturbing the system, producing any of those disagreeable effects inseparable from the common remedies. With the medicine is given a description of the symptoms which obtain in every stage of the disease, with copious directions for their treatment, so as to accomplish a perfect cure in the shortest time and least inconvenience possible. Take notice that the above valuable medicines cannot be genuine if had at any other store than Warner & Hanna's, corner of Gay & Market streets—John Vance & Co's No. 178, three doors below Charles-street, in Market street, and at N. Knight's, Fell's Point. Observe, that the signature of Richard Lee and Son, is on the outside wrapper of the genuine medicines. N. B. The whole of Lee's Genuine Medicines may be had at the above Book-Stores, and no where else in Baltimore. September 30.

FROM JAMAICA PAPERS, Received at the office of the N. Y. Commercial Advertiser.

KINGSTON, (J.m.) August 30. The Fleet brig, of 18 guns, the Hon. Captain Cadogan, sailed on Sunday morning for Coro, on the Spanish Main, having on board Captain James Ledlie, of the Columbian Army, who returns with answers from Sir Eyre Coote and Admiral Biscoe to the dispatches addressed to them, and received here on the 15th inst. from General Francisco de Miranda.

We understand that the Heads of our Government have expressed themselves in high terms of approbation of the laudable purposes General Miranda is aiming at, and regret much that they are precluded from giving him the assistance which his views demand, as they cannot take so great a responsibility on themselves, not having had any communication from his Majesty's Ministers on the subject. It is not to be lamented that no assistance could be afforded the General from this quarter, as we are well assured that a few hundred men, tolerably disciplined, would have effected all he wished for in a few weeks; and a junction with a considerable body of them now encamped ready to join him; but which he cannot attempt with the force at present under his command.

The Stork ship of war, of 18 guns, Captain Le Goyt; the Flying Fish schooner, of 12 guns, Lieut. Price, and the Pme schooner, of five guns, Lieut. Outley, sailed on Monday for Coro. On General Miranda's embarkation at Coro, he immediately issued considerable numbers, printed in the Spanish language, on a large type, of the following PROCLAMATION.

Don Francisco de Miranda, Commander in Chief of the Cuban Army, to the Inhabitants of the Continent of Columbian America:

BRAVE COUNTRYMEN AND FRIENDS. Obdient to your wishes, and to the repeated requests and calls of the country, to whose service we have cheerfully consecrated the greater part of our lives, we have disembarked in this province of Caracas. The opportunity and time appears to us highly favorable for the completion of our designs; and all persons composing this army are your friends or countrymen; all resolved to sacrifice their lives, if necessary, for your liberty and independence, to render the auspicious protection of the British Navy! With those auxiliaries, we can safely say, to the day will come when our American, recovering their Sovereign Independence, her Sons will be able to say with the Universe their exalted spirit. The oppressive unfeeling Government which has obstructed our liberties, and which has closed with calamities our detested and character, managed also to maintain her abominable system of administration for three successive centuries, but was now able to eradicate from our hearts those moral and civil virtues which a holy religion, and a regular code of laws, incorporated with our customs, and led to an honest and natural course of action.

Let us be worthy then of those admirable qualities, that the mean, odious agents of the Court of Madrid being expelled, we may be able quickly to establish the civil order necessary to the completion of so honorable an undertaking. The recovery of our rights as citizens, and of our national glory as Columbian Americans, will be amongst the least benefits we shall derive from that so just and necessary determination.

The innocent Indians, and other men, will consider us all as Brother-Citizens, and that preceding by laws only to merit and virtue, in which belief they will primarily obtain most certainly, military and civil recompenses, the reward of merit alone. If the Dutch and Portuguese were able, in former times, to throw off the yoke of Spanish oppression; if the Swiss, and Americans, our neighbors, have equally succeeded to establish their liberty and independence with the general applause of the world, and to the benefit of their inhabitants, when each of them, separately, scarcely contained two or three millions of people—Why then shall we, who are at the least sixteen millions, not be able easily to extricate ourselves! Possessing besides, over and above these considerations, the most fertile, inexhaustible and rich continent in the known world! The fact is, that it depends solely upon our own will—and that the will, progressing to our independence, Union will assure to us permanent and perpetual happiness: the Divine Providence ordains it, to alleviate the miseries of our unhappy countrymen, and for the protection and benefit of the human species! Those people who are timorous or less instructed, and who wish to inform themselves of the ground work of the justice and equity which those proceedings require—joined to the historical truths that prove the inconceivable ingratitude, unheard of cruelties, and atrocious persecution of the Spanish Government, towards the innocent and unhappy inhabitants of the New World, almost from the moment of its discovery, will read the subjoined address of Don Juan Pizarro, of the order of Jesus, directed to his countrymen, and they will find in it irrefragable proofs, and solid arguments in favor of our cause, dictated by a Holy Man, at a time when he was about to king his leave of this world, to appear before the creator of the Universe.

To carry this plan into its due effect with security and efficacy, the Citizens will be obliged, without distinction of classes or stations (Ecclesiastics only excepted, in the parts where they may be appointed) to conform themselves strictly to the following article:— I. Every person, military, judicial, civil, or ecclesiastic, who exercises any authority granted by the Court of Madrid, shall suspend, profecto, their functions—and those who may continue them after the present publications, as well as those who obey such persons, shall be severely punished.

II. The Ecclesiastical courts, and courts of Justice, in all cities, towns and places, shall exercise, ad interim all the functions of Government, Civil, Administrative and Judicial, with personal responsibility, and regulated by the laws of the country; and the curates of parishes and missionaries shall remain in their respective churches and parishes, without altering the exercise of their sacred functions.

III. All the Ecclesiastical Courts and courts of Justice shall send one or two Deputies to the Headquarters of the army, in order that they may unite themselves in a general assembly on our arrival in the Capital, and to first there a provisional time, to establish another government general and permanent with the consent of all the nation.

IV. Every Citizen, from the age of 16 to 55 years, shall repair, without fail to the Army, bringing with him such arms as he may be able to procure—and if they have none, they shall receive them from the Military depots of the Army.

V. The citizen who may have the baseness to make common cause with the agents of the Spanish government, or who may be found with arms, encamped, in any garrio or place of strength for the said government, shall be treated as a traitor to his country. If any persons in the actual service of Spain shall be so unanimous as to believe, that they are in honour bound to serve against the independence of their country, they shall be forever banished the country.

VI. On the contrary, all those who are exercising any military, civil, or whatever other employ, who may join, with promptitude, the standard of the country, shall receive honours and employments proportioned to the zeal and love of the country which they may have manifested as such an important conjuncture; soldiers and seamen shall be equally rewarded according to their capacity and zeal.

VII. The Treasurers of the public money shall immediately depoite the same with the Administrators Civil and Ecclesiastic, who shall nominate persons capable of managing the same, and for the supply of the Columbian Army, with whatever may be necessary to its maintenance and operations; not only in money but also in provisions, clothing, vegetables, cartages, mules, horses, &c.

VIII. In order to prevent all kind of insult or aggression on the part of the Soldiers, or the advanced posts of the Army, the Magistrates and Parish Priests of the cities, towns, and villages (under their personal responsibility) shall cause to be fixed the colours or ensigns of the National Independence, in the highest and most conspicuous parts of the Churches, and the Citizens shall also wear in their hats the cockade which denotes them to be such, without which they would not be respected and protected as brothers.

IX. This proclamation shall be fixed by the priests and magistrates on the doors of the parish churches and all public buildings in order that it may be speedily notified to all the inhabitants; they shall also read in the churches, and in every civil court, once a day, at least, the pamphlet for nearly mentioned, written by J. Viscardo, which accompanies this edict.

X. Whoever shall hinder, retard, or neglect the completion of the nine preceding articles, shall be considered as a public offender, and punished immediately with exemplary severity.—The public good is the supreme law. Done at Head Quarters, at Coro, 2d August, 1806.
