London, Aug. 16. By a decree of the 3d August, the Emperor Napoleon has ordered a further conscription of co,000 levies. The Paris editor says the increased limits of the will be allowed to retire from service.

Princess of Wales-It is now conadently stated that a copy of the report, upon a certain mysterious and delicate inquiry, was presented to the illustrious iemale principally concerned, on the !1:b of this month. The report is dated the animadverts upon some peculiarities in in more which might appear as levities in women of this country, but which are the ordinary habits of foreigners. It is needless for us to express our high gratification at this result of an enquiry, that has excited so much attention, as it must be the common feeling of every tender, generous, and manly heart.

LATEST FROM FRANCE. On Saturday arrived the brig Henry, captain Allen, in 51 days !. om Bordeaux. -By'this arrival, Paris papers to the 12th August and Bordeaux to 18th have been Extract-Autchez, September 6, 1865. received --- Their contents have been principally anticipated by our London dates: With respect to the pending negociations between Great Britain and France, the accounts, as heretofore, are varying and undeterminate. Captain Allen states that the day he lest Bordeaux (18th August) advices were received from been broken off, and that Lord Lauderdale was to set out for England on the Captain A. also states that West India produce, had been very low-but had rapidly become in great demand-200,000 nt. of coffee had been sold, a few days before he sailed, at 37 dollars per 100 wt clear of duties.

(Norfolk Ledger.)

The ship John and Avice, sailed from London about the 6th of August, having on board the baggage of Mr. Erskine, the British Ministe. —16.

A letter which we laive seen from an American captain of much intelegence, from Barcelona, as late as the list of July, states, that the Tunisians and Tripo. litans, have a very considerable force at sea, and that the Americans in the Mediterranean are under considerable al rin.

" Yesterday dispatches arrived from governor Claiborne, who was at Natchitoches, with more correct accounts than we had before. Major King, who went over with governor Claiborne, also arrived here. The Spaniards, about 1200 stroug, had actually crossed the Sabine and arrived at the Stoney Creek, or Bayou Paris informing that the negociations had Pierre French settlement, about 60 miles on this side the Sabine, and 50 from Natchitoches.—Stoney Creek falls into Red River, and thence they detached a small, party to within 7 miles of Natchitaches. Some communications passed between governor Claiborne and the Spanish party thereupon returned to the main body at Bayou Pierre; where they say they are ordered and determined to remain, and expect reinsorcements. Bayou Pierre is, I believe, the same post from which Turner drove them last year. "Our whole force at Natchitocher, even when those from Lostus Heights arrive, will not exceed 500 men. One company remains at the Heights. There were 250 regulars at New Orleans, and about 120 at Tombigbee. This is the whole of our regular force in this quarter. The Spaniads, I believe, are weak both at Baton Rouge and Mobille; but they can be readily reinforced from Pensacoia, or the Havanna.

"It is reported, but how truly I do not mean to say, that the old French settlers on the other side the Mississippi, refused to turn out against the Spaniards; that upon the call of the militia the Americans only turned out with alacrity.

"The people of the Mississippi territory are very spirited on this occasion, and have raised several volunteer companies. This country is strong, and I believe, the inhabitants could defend it against any sudden force the Spaniards can send; but the country below is level and open, where horse can act with great advantage; and the greater part of the Spanish forces are said to be cavalry. Yet, I am persuaded that if hostilities were to commence, our little force by dint of enterprize and hardiness would be too much for them.—But it does not seem likely, at present, that hostilities will take place. Colonel Gushing does not mean to force the Spaniards from
