Europe, if things can be so conducted without disadvantage, it is both the most humane and most useful policy; for what good would we derive from shedding human blood, either of the Spaniard or our own citizens.

" We are told here that judge Prevost,* of New Orleans, is removed, but who is his successor is not said. A Kentucky paper called the Western World, attracts very great attention here; among others judge Prevost, Edward Livingston, general Wilkinson, Mr. Burr, Mr. J. Brown, of Kentucky; are charged as concerned in a new conspiracy against the peace of the whole union, and a separation of this section from the eastern parts of the union. Many people here are well acquainted with the old conspiracy of a similar kind concerted with the Spaniards and with the leading characters concerned in it, and Juany wonder how Wilkinson came to be appointed to the chief command of our force. One of general Wayne's old captains informed me that the story of Neuman's conduct was stronger against Wilkinson than any thing yet published. This he speaks of his own knowledge, and says the depositions were sent on to our government. I am sorry to find that even general S. Smith is attempted to be impli ated in a late paper on this subject. This subject since it has been stirred ought to be searched to the bottom, whither as an act of justice to the country or to the individuals. If any mischief was ineditated it is now certainly checked, for all parties will be cautions." - Aurora. * Son-in-law of Mr. Burr.

gentleman in London, dated the 14th August, received per the sieft Sheffield at Astfolk.

" Business of every kind is dull here, except what is connected with the stocks, and the dealers in cotan. When lord Landerdile embarked for France, omminim rose to 12 3.4 percent, from 7 per cent. but it has been gradually going down again, and is now about 9 per cent premium. When the idea of a peace first became prevalent, cotton was very dull at seventeen patice half-penny per Ib. some sales have lately been made at twenty pences un'er an opinion that a peace will extend the demand for minufactured glods in proportion to the restriction which, it is the policy of France at present to ampose on all British manufac-Inres-

"Tobacco has fallen about ten per he passed it. cent. in consequence of the appearance of peace. As to Flour, no great change haz yet happened, but if the harvest is as I ruductive as it is expected, that article will possibly fall considerably.

"We are without any intelligence from Lord Lauderdale since he reached Paris, and the opinion for peace and war seem nearly equal."

MR. PECHIN,

Having read in several newspapers, an account taken from the Bos.on Gazette of the 29th ultimo, and probably Liven to the printer there, by captain Reuben Alien, at the schooner Venus, purporting that the eargo of the said schooner had been condemned at Halifax, in const quince of concealed papers Being found on board.—I do hereby colemnity declare, that I am yet ignorant of the cause of condemnation; and F further declare, that the paper't said to have been concealed, had no r. lation whatever to the cargo of the Venus, and that the paper said to have been found in a sundry goods having been landed at the Isle of France, in July 1805, from on board my ship Chesapeake, and that the whole of the goods connerated in that certificat., were American property, as well as the whole of the cargo of the schooner Venus.
