French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Professor of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Lexington-street and Charles-street; at this place to discourse in behalf of my pupils, I have no need—it is useless to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the most unlearned man must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. These impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, here before than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

JOSEPH PAILLOTTET.

N. B. Private lessons, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply.
