French Night School.
NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils, I have no need—it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 45 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.
JOSEPH PAILLOTET, N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply.

New School.
THE subscriber, who for the last six years, has had the direction of a private school, established by Messrs. Robert Smith, James A. Buchanan, and Solomon Etting, for the instruction of the families, begs leave to offer his services to the public in the same capacity.
He can produce the most flattering testimonials of his abilities as a teacher, from the Rev.
Dr. Carroll, and the Abbé DuBois, president of the French Seminary; and, to his late employers he refers, as vouchers for his zeal, abilities and success in the improvement of children.
He undertakes to teach the ancient and fashionable modern languages, with every other branch of useful and ornamental literature.— The number of his pupils will be limited to 25.
For terms apply to No. 154, Market-street, a few doors above Calvert-street.
