Captain Done, who lest Lisbon the 9th of September, jusgrms, that Earl St. Vincents had arrived there with six sail of the line and two frigates. It was supposed he came for the purpose of protecting the persons and property of the British subjects in case l'ortugal was invaded by a French and Spanish army which was daily expected. Business was dull-and-freights low .--It was rumoured that the negociations for peace were broken off.

We-learn by captain Tirrel, who lest Cadiz on the 1st ult. that there were twelve French and Spanish ships of the line ready for sea; and eight English ships of the line, under admiral Collingwood, off the harbour. It was reported that the invasion doors of Market-space, where he has at present of Portugal was contemplated; and that |; an elegant assortment of Double and Single the negociations between France and England, for peace, had failed.

Captain Smith, of the Little James, from Hamburgh for Boston, spoken at sea, informed, that the French had resolved on the continuance of the war, and would allow no other messengers from England to land in France.

Extract of a letter from Messra, Collinga. Bewden, and America, to a merchant in this town, dated Retierdam, August 16.

" Wee shrace the first opportunity to inform you, that recent changes in policical effeirs have had a sensible effect on our markets. It is now, we conceive, b-youd doubt, that lord Lauderdale returns to England, without being able to. accomplish the object of his mission. So much is this believed, that conces which were down to 12 a 13 stivers, would now find 17 a/19. Sugars are likewise advanced. The brown II vanua to 12 a 13 white to 13 1-2 a 16; hiuscovadors 10 a 11 greats; cottons, Georgia, are 30 a 34 groats; logwood, 8 a 9.

"We cannot well give you more general quotations at this moment as the naws of the late misunderstanding has not spre, denough to render the markets sufficiently regular.

" Asternoon. We have just time to inform you, that 6 or 800 bags good St. Domingo or Cheribon coffee, were sold just now at 18 stivers, old allow-nees, which is equal to 17 1-4 new weight."

NEW-YORK, October 16. MIRANDA.

Captain Ross, of the schooner Dispatch, who arrived this morning in 18 days from Trinicad, informs us that general Miranda had been again at that island. . that he received a reinsorcement of British officers, and 3 ships of war, and then proceeded to the Maine. Two days before captain R. sailed, dispatches had arrived, announcing, that the expedition had effected a landing on the Maine, and that two battles had been fought, in one of which, 400 Spanish soldiers were killed. It is said that the inhabitants of the country were daily flocking in to Muanda's standard; and no doubts were entertainen at Trinicad that the expedition would be successful. It is added that general Miranda's brother had been executed and hung in chains.

General Anthony Morales, consul general of the Dutch government, has appointed Curtis Bolton, Esq. as vice cousul i the Dutch government, in the state of Georgia, at the residence of Savannah.

The corporation of Trinity Church in the city of New-York, has erected over the grave of Hamilton, in Trinity Church yard, a beautiful monument of white marble, composed of a pyramid resting on an clevated base or pedestal, surrounded with four elegant urns, and rising to the height of about twelve seet. The following is the inscription:

Long after this marble shall have mouldered into dust. He died July 12th, 1804, aged 47."

Oct. 16. We are requested to state (in contradiction to a report which has got abroad) that during the passage of the brig Deen from Savannah to this port, no accident happened to the vessel, her rigging, or cargo; and that her only misfortune was the loss of four persons, who died of sickness. Captain Jackson informs, he met a ship of wer going into Hampton Roads on Sunday last; and it the same time as Bil ish sloop of war was getting under w y, bound out.

NASSAU, N. P. September 16. On Sunday I.st, we were again visited by a very severe gole, more violent than the one we experienced on the 21st of last month. It commenced from the northward, eatly in the morning, & contiriued with unabated violence until night, by which time it had shifted round to the Southward. The circumstance of its blowing from the Northward, fortunately orcasioned the shipping in the harbour to he in a measure protected against it's. fury, by Hog Island, yet, the shipping did not escape altogether without injury, and we record the dumage sustained by them. The brig Two Brothers, and smack Betsey, belonging. to capt. Fisher, sunk in the harbor; but the distress of the inhabitants is deplorable in the extreme. There are only now standing on the island about 46 houses, and these very much shattere, and ac less than 124 to ally de nolished, exclusive of the barracks and Church, which or or z d to the foundation; and what addito these distressing circumstances, is that the whole crop on which those people depended is totally destroyed.

It was a current report here yesterday, that Mons. For the truth of this we cannot vouch, but this much is certain, that government have directed commodore Baron and his brother captain J. (Worfolk paper.)

By late advices from the Mediterranean, we learn that war hus been declared between the Bey of Tunis and the Dey of Algiers; occasioned by the refusal of Tunis to pay the stipulated tribute to Algiers, in which the former is said to be countenanced by the Porte. The Bey of Tunis has raised an army of 70,000 men, and the Dey of Algiers one of 60,000; the latter with the evowed purpose of attacking Tunis .- His troops manifested some repugnance to marching, until they were tempted by the offer of the plunder, of the town. No accounts have been received of the meeting of these armies, from which we may expect a bloody combat. The Tunisians cruizers had already entered the harbors of Algiers; and committed considerable depredations; and Algiers liad sent out several civisers to intercept Melli Melli. [Nat. Int.

We have been obligingly favored with Trinidad papers of the 20th of September, containing the following translations of intercepted letters from several gentlemen at Luguira to their friends at Cumawai. These letters were written while Miranda and his troops were in posses. sion of Upro. They show the slarm and confusion, which prevuiled among the friends of the government at Laguira, and llie leghte and unprepared state of the
