French Night School. RTOTICE is hereby kiven, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles. street; but to promise to do wonders in hehalf of my pupils, I have no need—it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned with out grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French lan guage to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me

Infallible Ague & Fever Drops, For the cure of Agues, Renittent, and Intermittent Fevers. THOUSANDS can testify of their being cured by these drops, after the bark and every other medicine have proved ineffectual Not one in a hundred has had occasion to take more than one, and hundreds not half a bottle. These drops are particularly recommended to the inhabitants of low, marshy countries, where the worst sort of agues generally prevail; which, unless early attended to and specdily removed, injure the constitution exceedingly, and bring on dropsies, putrid fevers, and a variety of complaints, of the most dangerous and ale ming nature. - Many other medicines are daily offered to the public for the cure of this disorder, which, upon trial, have been found either dangerous or useless. The bark is the usual remedy made use of; but Being a very nauseous medicine, and seldom taken in sufficient quantity, it very often fails ; children and those who have weak stomache, are frequently lost, for want of a more easy and pleasant remedy.

Take notice that the above valuable medicine cannot be genuine if had at any other store than Warner & Hanna's, comer of Gay and Market-streets-John Vance & Co's No. 178, three doors below Charles-street, in Market-street, and at N. Knight, No. 23, Fell'astreet, Fell's-Point.
