French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils, I have no need—it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language in the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

TO THE ADMIRERS

Of Polished Teeth.

A new invented Elastic Tooth Rubber,

WHICH experience has proved to be far superior to the brush or any thing that has ever been heretofore offered for that purpose. The brush is the only thing now in use, and its use has long since proved its want of that quality which is essential to giving that lustre so much aimed at and so much desired; but a remedy is found which not only completely whitens, but perfectly polishes. The brush is still to be used as a preparative, which is preferable for cleansing and penetrating the cavities of the teeth; the rubber being only intended for polishing all the exterior or apparent parts.

N. B. The inventer has prepared some of that truly celebrated tooth powder, which in reality is nothing more than the harmless charcoal. It may be recollected that not long since this receipt was published in the American, taken from a London paper, where it has become in general, if not entire use. This is a valuable ingredient in polishing horn and tortoise shell; and I am enabled to say (being in the habitual use of it for several years) that, with the additional aid of the rubber, it will operate with the same beautiful effect upon the teeth. For sale by Jas. Hanna, at his Baltimore Medical Warehouse, No. 102, Baltimore-street, and no where else in Baltimore.

He had on when he absconded a short round fustian jacket, a pair of velveteen pantaloons, white waistcoat and black hat; however he had in his possession some other clothes and he will probably change his dress—He took with him a dark brown mixed cloth long coat and waistcoat, several pair of nankeen pantaloons. 50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away on Saturday the 27th inst. from the country residence of the subscriber, a Negro Man called PETER, formerly owned by Mr. Joseph Young, of this city. He is about 5 feet 6 inches high, stout made, rather handsome than otherwise, has tolerable good teeth, was very lame when he went off, owing to the wheel of a carriage in cleaning it falling upon his foot; has a particular aversion to giving a direct answer; but always says, "I reckon," to every question the most positive; and is constantly talking to himself as if grumbling. His clothes were numerous, among them was a blue cloth coat, a brown cloth coatee rather rusty, though not much worn; a dove colored twilled nankeen coatee, considerably faded from washing, the sleeves of which have been let out; several handsome Marseilles vests of different patterns, all very short; shirts of fine white Irish linen; pantaloons and gaters of India nankeen, very good, and of the present mode; a fashionable Beaver hat, quite new, maker's name in the crown, Wm. Branson, Hatter, 131, Market-street, Baltimore. The above reward will be given for apprehending said negro out of the state, and lodging him in jail so that I get him again; or thirty dollars if within the state. All masters of vessels and others are forewarned hiring or employing him under penalty of the law to its utmost extent.
