Angust 7. French Night School. MICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Tracher and Translator of the Etench & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charlesstreet; but to promise to do wonders in behalf of my papils, I have no need-it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned withbut grammatical rules, even as far as translastion; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not expable to learn a fireign language. Those Impartial judges who know me will certainly space, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March
