Just Received,
AND FOR SALE AT THE BOOK STORE OF
GEORGE DOBBIN & MURPHY,
No. 10, Baltimore-street, opposite Centre Market, The first vol. of a second edition, highly improved, and much enlarged, of the original work, entitled
Nature Displayed,
In her mode of teaching languages to man; Or, a new and valuable method of acquiring a language in the shortest time possible, deduced from the analysis of the human mind, and consequently suited to every capacity.— Adapted to the French, in two volumes.
By N. G. DUFIEF, OF PHILADELPHIA.

Extracts from respectable Reviews, &c.
The author tenders his most grateful thanks to the gentlemen who recommended the first edition to public patronage, and in particular to Thomas Jefferson, Esq. president of the United States, to whom the manuscript was submitted. He was pleased to write an encouraging letter on the subject, and thereby greatly promoted the success of the undertaking. It concluded in the following handsome and polite manner:

"I can see by what you have done, that your work will be eminently useful, and ask permission to subscribe for half a dozen copies for the different members of my family."
THOMAS JEFFERSON.
Mr. N. G. Dufief.

"The above work, together with those on the same subject, which have been published in various languages, and which have been permeated, who, since its publication, have reviewed 'Nature Displayed.'" "This work is a system of instruction, which the writer has adopted from its conformity to the precepts of simple nature, and from his long and multiplied experience of its success. He styles it the method of Nature, in teaching languages, and he anticipates the most splendid success in his efforts to explain and introduce this method in the seminaries, not only of America, but of every part of the world, where the French language is attended to. This method possesses the singular excellence of being adapted to all languages. So far as we are able to estimate the merits of works of this nature, we do not hesitate to bestow the feeble sanction of our praise, and the slender aid of our wishes for its success."

Literary Magazine.
"Finally, we conclude, that those who peruse 'Nature Displayed,' with attention, will agree with us that it has much originality and merit, while it promises such utility to society (as the principles are applicable to all languages) that the laws of the old world will probably be lost in those of the new, in teaching this important branch of literature."
"The chief merit of this method consists in its being a close imitation of the process of nature, in conveying the knowledge of language to children. A higher encomium need not, in our opinion, be sought by the ambitious of the author."

"We hope this performance will be in the hands of all who wish to spare themselves the drudgery, the circuitousness, and the waste of time, which attend the acquisition of languages in the modes commonly practised."
"We earnestly recommend Mr. Dufief's 'Nature Displayed,' to all those parents who are desirous of having their children instructed in the French language."

Monthly Register.
"We therefore conclude these remarks by wishing him success in his laudable undertaking, proportioned to the ingenuity and ability with which these volumes are executed."
"We are happy to learn that several instructors in different parts of the United States, are teaching the French language on Mr. Dufief's principles."
Paradise, or Christian Army.
"We consider this work, not only as a valuable acquisition to the student of the French language, but as a performance which reflects credit on the literature of our country."
Monthly Anthology and Boston Review.
"The subscription price of this work is $2.00, in boards."
"Such gentlemen as have become subscribers to the above publication at our book-stops, will please call for their copies."
