TUESDAY NOVEMBER 11, 1806

The brig Active Trader, on her passage from Philadelphia, to St. Thomas, fell in with the schooner l'elican, of this port, bottom up, and a number of empty boxes fleating about her. Ship Olive, Richardson, was left at St Ubes 40 days fince, to fail in 2 days for this port.

Ship Sally, Poor, of Newburyport, from Baltimore, lately fent inte Halifax, has been condenned, wi is her cargo, excepting a few flaves belonging to the owners.

Brig Cenet, Courfell, belonging to this port. has also been condemned, with the part of her cargo belonging to the owner.

The Fermal George, Field, and William, Cleavland, from Bahimore have arrived at Boston.

The Charleston Courier, of the 27th ulf. says, capt. Nelson, who arrived yesterd sy from Havanna, informs us, that a few days before he sail d. a Spinish pucket arrived at Trinidad, (Cuba) in 50 days from Old Spain. Letters by this arrival were received at Havanna, stating, that East and West Flirida had been bedied by Spain to France, and by France to the United States. It was also stated, that the Island, of Cuba had been coded by Spain to France, in consequence of B waparte's agreeing to reinstate the King of Naples on his Throne.

. General Stuart. - This distinguished gentleman is likely to have as many competitors among different, nations and cities for the honor of his nativity, as II: m:r of old. The People's Fri and declares, that he was born in e swate Ireland,"and Mr. Coleman, on the authority of a Scotchman avers that he was born in "Balenoch." We are enabled to stite, from the most respectable information, that he is a native of Annapolis, Maryland, and brother to Mr. Stuart, solicitor general, at Halifax, celebrated for his able speeches in behalf of American vessels detained by British cruizers.

INTERESTING LETTER. _ Shortly after Louisiana had been surrendered to the Americans, M. Castillion, president of the corporation of the church of St. Louis, în New-Orleans, addressed a letter to Portalis; the French minister of religious affars, in which he flated, that confiderable schilms had taken place in the church, since the change of government; and requesting such relief as could be afforded by the emperor of the French, in restoring order, and replacing the affairs of the church in their former state. 'A gentleman from New-Orleans has favored us with a copy of the answer of Portalis, which: was received a fliore time fince. It excited couliderable interell in New Orleans:

Paris, 5th of June, 1806. The minister of religious affairs, grand officer of the legion of honor, to Mr Castillion, president of the corporation of the church of St. Louis, in New-Orleans, Louisiana.

I had the honor, sir, of announcing to you by my letter of the 29th of March lait, that I had laid before his majesty, the state of thimult and schissin, in which the church of New-Offeans had been placed, during the vacancy of Lie episcopal'sée.

The emperor, whose solicitude embraces every object which can be productive of good, as well as anxions to arrell the progress of evil, still bearing in mind that you were once Frenchmen, has expressly directed me to urge the hely see, to adopt the most strenuous meafuxes to repress the dissentions which have broken out amongst you. His majetty this day orders me to apprize you, that in confideration of his high recommendation, his holineis has veilted in the bishop of Lastimore, the necessary powers of administering provisionally, and during the vacancy of the fee, on the Affairs of the church of New-Orleans; and that this prelate has been enjaned to ever forme from Portland, and eandidates, amongst whom a new billion may the river, bound up.

be chosen, provided the government of the United States does not object to the election. His majesty bas further expressly charged nie, to assure you of the uncersing regard be entertains est he takes in the Support of all their religious rights, amongst the most prominent of which, to the president of the United States.

I feel happy, fir, in being authorifed to give you affarances of the utmolt protection of his majelly; and tender you the homage of my highest consideration.
