NEW-YORK, November 19 The ship New-Guide, captain H. H., came up yesterday from Gravesend Bay; and we had the pleasure of receiving our regular file of London papers to the evening of the 24th of Sept. a Liverpool paper of the 25th, and a London General Prices Current of the 19th. The readers of the Mercantile Advertiser having already been furnished with news from the European Continent to the 25th these papers afford very little information, and that little not very important, but they contributed to enrich our marine department with some valuable articles, of shipping intelligence.

LATEST FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE, Received at the office of the New-York Mercantile Advertiser. LONDON, September 19: A letter from Plymouth, of the 14th instant, contains the following passage, which, if the fact be correctly stated, must be deemed important:— "Plymouth, September 14: "Lord St. Vincent has taken out all the Portuguese ships of war at Lisbon, and is rigging them with all possible dispatch, and no doubt will bring them away with him, and all the Royal Family."

September 22. Arrangements are understood to be in a state of forwardness for the amicable adjustment of our differences with Prussia. The Prussian ports are expected to be opened immediately to our trade.

Rear Admiral Stirling has been sent out to supercede Sir Home Popham. He sailed from Plymouth some time ago. It is reported too, but we trust the report is untrue, that Sir Home is coming home under arrest.

The Gazette of Saturday night contains his Majesty's Order in Council for opening a trade with Buenos Ayres, and its dependencies, according to the regulations in force between this country and its colonial possessions in the West Indies and America. The judicious arrangement made by Sir Home Popham, for the reduction of the duties on imports, is confirmed, with the exception of German linens, which for the present remain subject to the duties formerly paid. We are happy to observe that the importation of slaves is totally prohibited. This prohibition, while truly gratifying to the friends of humanity, must essentially tend to the distress of the Spanish government, as of the great number of slaves imported into Buenos Ayres from Africa, the principal part were sent from Cape Horn to work the gold and silver mines in Peru.

The Rotario and some other of our cruisers, have lately been employed in examining all the enemy's ports from Ullant to Cape Ortugal, in consequence of information received by Government, that the enemy were busily employed in naval armaments along that coast. By this survey it has been ascertained, that the naval establishment at Ereit, L'Orient, Rochefort, &c. are precisely as they have been for some time past.

The Veteran, Jerome Bonaparte's ship, is hauled into the inner harbor at Concarneau, and moored head and stern to the guns, there not being room for her to swing; her guns are taken out to make batteries to protect her even there, and her sails unbent, so apprehensive are they of a visit from some of the British ships.

September 23. The variety of these, the mode of equipment of some of them, and the term for which they are variously valued, put conjecture at defiance. A great many flat-bottomed boats have been sent from the Downs, and most of the transports have now one or two of them.

The latest report is, that the reinforcement going out to Buenos Ayres, is to consist of the 17th Light Dragoons, "the brave Death or Glory regiment," Gen. De Lancy's regiment; of the 5th battalion of the 9th, Gen. England's regiment; and of the 88th, or Connaught Rangers, Gen. Reid's regiment. The Ardent, of 64 guns, and the Charwell loop, are to convey them immediately.

We have just learned, that an expedition will shortly be sent out to the West Indies. With sincere pleasure we learn, that rewards and honors are to be conferred on Sir Home Popham and Major Gen. Bessford.

On Sunday the transports with the following regiments, failed from Portsmouth. 40th Regiment, 1st battalion; 40th do. 2d battalion; 14th do. 2d battalion; 5th German Legion, detachment; 6th do. detachment; 7th do. whole regiment; and 8th do. whole regiment.

Part of the 9th dragoons marched through Dover yesterday from Deal, on their way to Portsmouth, where they are to be embarked for foreign service.

Major Generals Sir Arthur Wellefly and Sir George Prevost, will, it is said, get the commands of separate expeditions.

September 25. Price of Stocks this day at one o'clock—Conf. money, 62 1-2 5-8—for O.A. acc. 63 3-4 7-8—Omnium 6 1-2 3-4—Exchequer bills, par. We understand that the following are the new arrangements which are agreed upon in consequence of the lamented death of Mr. Fox:

Earl Fitzwilliam, from indisposition, wishes to retire from the situation (which requires regular attention) of Lord President, but to retain his seat in the Cabinet. Lord Sidmouth to be President. Lord Holland, to be Lord of the Privy Seal. Lord Howick, to be Secretary of State for the Foreign Department. Mr. Thomas Grenville, to be First Lord of the Admiralty. Mr. Tierney, to be President of the Board of Control. Mr. Briggs Bathurst to be Master of the Mint, vice Lord Charles Spencer. Mr. Whitbread will also be speedily called into office, but the arrangement for that purpose is not yet matured. We can now add, with the utmost confidence, that Lord Grenville proceeded on Monday morning to Windsor, to take the king's pleasure upon the above nominations, all of which it is presumed will be confirmed at the privy council held this day.

The Expeditions.—One of the expeditions now fitting out is for the Spanish Main. We understand that the 36th, the 87th, and the 89th regiments are to go on this service.

"Plymouth, September 23. "This morning early, the wind having sprung up at E. N. E. the signal was made for the transports to weigh immediately, and put to sea. Every preparation for sailing, was made in consequence, and had the wind continued, the whole would have been clear of the port before this time; but it soon veered back to the Westward, and prevented their proceeding.

Orders have been received this day to prepare three transports for the reception of the 89th regiment of foot, which, we understand, are to be joined by the 89th regiment, from Portsmouth, and; then both to proceed direct for Buenos Ayres.
