NOTICE is hereby given, that I the sub-scriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common lwelling, between Light-street and Charlesstreet; but to promise to do wonders in hehalf of my pupils, I have no need-it suffices to tell them that no language can be iearned with out grammatical rules, even as far as transiation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French language to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent judge. I would advise these promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some beacht of their studies by the 15th of March.

This day is finished, AN ADDITION OF 6000 Spelling Books, From the 4th and last English edition. BY LINDLEY MURRAY:

Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c. &c.

The above work is comprehended under Turzz general divisions. One of the principal objects of the First Part, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as wereas in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowels and dipthongs, whether short, long, middle or

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the pronunciation of Walter have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book-and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.
