peace, and the other for war. The least political this month for the Havanna. event, and the most triffing interfering occurrence holds out advantages to one of them; and amidit thefe explosions of contending passions—in this labyrinth of court intrigues, the king irrefolutely hesitates to and fro, without ever cealing to be an honest man.

On the 11th Aug. a courier arrived at Berlin from the Marquis of Luchethi, and brought the most positive accounts and assurances of Russa and France having agreed to restore the kingdom porters of war became instantly inflamed-they ter, Rizer, Sincot, Ward-21. overpowered the feelings of the king-forty couriers were sent off in a single night-and they hastened to arms!

and, as an error was evidently the only wards, 30. motive for the armamenis-of-Prussia, it A motion was also made that leave be was hoped that, on mature deliberation, such madness would be terminated.

In the mean time the treaty signed at accounts of all descriptions, soon convinced Prussia, that the Marquis of Luchefini had collected his information in the plied by Baron Knobelsdorff a man of ward..23. an honest, open and unimpeached moral character.

ris, and was the bearer of a letter from nis, Denny, Emerson, Frisby, Gale, Garthe king of Prussia, dated August 23.

tisfactory manner.

courier with this answer, information was | der-43. received, that some songs of an offensive nature against France, had been sung on the stage at Berlin-that, immediately after the departure of Baron Knobelsderif, the preparations for war were doubled—and that, in spite of all who were endowed with calmness, the war party, breathing discord from all quarters, exerted themselves so successfully, that the king became incapable of resisting their influence.

After that it was conceived at Paris, that the peaceable party, being also influenced by fictitious reports and disturbed by false alarms, had lost every advantage—while the war party, benefiting by the error which had misguided their adversaries; became guilty of numerous provocations, and reiterated insults; and that affairs had assumed such an alarming appearance, as left no other alternative but war.

The emperor then saw that the force of circumstances was such, as compelled him to take up arms against his ally. made.

In the mean time affairs were conducted with the greatest celerity at Berlin .-The Prussian troops invaded Saxony, ad- | Spanish force under Conlero, it is believed, is vanced as far as the frontiers of the Con- now escamp dat the lower ford, on the right sederacy of the Rhine, and insulted the advanced posts.

the emperor received a courier from any hostile designs against Spain, and it is proprince Benevento, at Mentz, who brought | bable will reach that point about the 25th inft. two important dispatches—one a letter from the king of Prussia, twenty odd pages in length [the manifesto which has appeared in this gazette], which is nothing but a libel against France, such as England issues through the medium of it is probable your next news will be, at Nachiher 500l. a-year scribblers. The Emperor did not read the whole of it, but said to those around him,

" I pity my brother the king of Prus-" sia—he does not understand French— " he surely never read that rhapsody."

To this letter was attached the samous note of baren Knoblesdorff. " Marshal] (said the emperor to Berthier) we are challenged for the 8th of October-never did a Frenchman want punctuality on such an occasion; but as it is said that a fair queen is to be present to witness the con- | bequeath unto me a legacy of five hun test, let us shew our politeness, and march | dred guineas, which sum I shall be ento Saxony without going to bed."

for the queen of Prussia was in the camp | due for the same: Now I do hereby dressed like an Amazon in the uniform give and bequeath one moiety, or equal of her regiment of dragoons, writing half part, of all such monies, unto my twenty letters a day, to extend the flames | nephew, Henry Fox, son of General Fox; of war. We expect to see Armida in and the other moiety, or other half part her haste setting fire to her own palace. I thereof, unto Robert Stephen, a youth Next to her comes prince Lewis of Prus- now living with Lord Viscount Bolingsia, a youth full of fire and heroism, who brooke, in America. And whereas I am encouraged by the promoters of war, entitled to one annuity, or clear yearly flatters himself with acquiring great fame | sum of one hundred pounds, lately grantamidst the vicissitudes of war. At the ed to me by his Grace John Duke of instance of these two great personages, liedford, for and during the term of the the whole court has sounded the trumpet | natural life of Harriet Willoughby, in the of war; but when it shall have once ap- grant thereof named; Now I do hereby peared with all its terrors, each will wish | give and bequeath the same annuity unto exonerate themselves from the blame to my wife Elizabeth Bridget, for and of having apread it over the peaceable re- during the term of her natural life, if she, gions of the North. Then we shall find the said Harriet Willoughby, shall so that they will throw the blame on the long live; and from and after the decease king, who is a worthy man, duped by of my said wife, unto the said Harriet their artifices and intrigues.

some remarks, which shall appear in the pext number of the New-York Gazette.] | what nature or kind soever, not by me at the state of th : ANNAPOLIS, Dec. 9. Tuesday last anchored in Severa, H. I. M. ship' L'Eole, of 74 guns .- The guns having been previously taken out, and the ministrators, and Assigns for ever; onchannel budged, she was safely brought in, If I wish her to make presents in my and now lies in near five fathoms water. name of any books, pictures, or marble, The nife was that day 18 inches less than I she thinks fit, as remembrances of me, t. out common tides, - The Patriot is repair- the following friends z-Lord Holland, ternate victories. One party is disposed for | ing, and, we are informed, will sail in all General Fitzpatrick, Lord | schr. Henry, Graves, of Baltimore, for St. Croix, the House of Delegates of this state, that Townshend, Miss Fox, and M. Bougerie. leave be given to bring in a bill, entitled There are nany others whom I love and ry." Determined in the negative. The are my oldest connections. I nominate, following are the Year and Nays :-

Comegys, Cox, Dashiell, Denny, Dick- turs my Will; and revoking all former of Peland in conformity to the treaty of the 20th inson, Downes, Gleaves, Kuhn, Little, Wills by me made, do declare this only July, and of taking Silesta from Prussia. The sup- | Martin, Mitchell, Mossitt, Parnham, Por- | to be my list Will and Testament. I tone, Bowles, M. Brown, Carroll, Chap- July, one thousand eight nundred and The news of this sudden explosion man, Parne, Dennis, Forwood, Fra- two reached Paris on the 20th day of the same | zier, Frisby, Gardiner, Hall, Harryman, month. Every one pitied an ally who B. Hodges, C. D. Hodges, Jackson, was so cruelly misguided. The neces- King, Merriken, M'Pherson, Reynolds, zary explanations were immediately given, Schnebly, Selby, Street, P. Stuart, R. as well as the most positive assurance; STEUART, White, Williams, Wood-

given to bring in a bill to "withdraw the donations heretofore granted to the several academies and schools within this state Paris was not ratified; and succeeding and subject the same to the appropriation of the legislature"...which was negatived

as follows: YEAS.. Bayard, Biggs, Bishop, Bowles, most suspicious circles of the capital, and M. Brown, Comegys, Cox, Davis, Downes, amongst intriguers, with whom he usu- | Forwood, Frazier, Gleaves, Mitchell, ally associated. In consequence of this Mossitt, Porter, Schnebly, Smoot, Street, he was recalled; and his place was sup- Turpin, Ward, Watts, White, Wood-

NAYS .- AISQUITH, Beall, Belt, Blackistone, J. Brown, W. H. Brown, Bruce, This ambassador soon repaired to Pa- | Carroll, Chapman, Darne, Dashiell, Dendiner, Hall, Harryman, Hawkins, Hebb, This letter was filled with expressions B. Hodges, C. D. Hodges, Jackson. King, of an obliging nature; and we answered Kuhn, Little, Martin, Merriken, M'Pherby our emperor in a most candid and sa- son, Parnham, Pearce, Reynolds, Rizer, Selby, Shaaff, R. STEUART, P. Stuart, The day after the departure of the Sturgis, Sudler, Waters, Williams, Win-

American,

Commercial Daily TUESDAY DECEMBER 16, 1806

The sch'r Union, of Warren (R. I.) Boker, from Baltimore for Amsterdam, has been detained by a Guernsey privateer and carried into that port.

The schr. Wolf, Jones, hence, at Charleston. The brig Hibernia, hence, at Savanuali.

Extrast of a letter from Natchitoches, dated October 13, 1806. " To satisfy the public mind, let it be known, that governor wilkinson sent his adjutant general with a letter to governor Cordero, at Nachidoches on the 24th ult. and received an anfwer on the 3d inft. importing that governor C. would not enter int a discussion of he grave propositions made by gov. W. but had transmitted his letter to the captain general of the province, about the 24th inft.

" On the 27th ultimo the Spanish camp at the Bayou Pierre, was raised with a degree of pre-He therefore ordered preparations to be | cipitancy, which marked alarm, governor l'erara was carried away in a litter, and the troops, under the inspector Kiana, traversed the country to the main road leading to Nachidoches, by which he crossed the Sabine: and the whole bank of that river.

"Gov. Wilkinson is preparing to move forward to the east bank of the Sabine, to affert On the 7th, at Bamberg, his majesty | the jurisdiction of the United States, but without He seems most earnestly desirous to prevent blocki-shed, but appears equally determined to maintain the territory of the United States inviolate, and to repel, and punish any aggressions which may be offered. Ergo, should his opponent have the temerity torre-cross the Sabine, doches, and the Dons at St. Antonio, four hundred and fifty miles west."

> MR. FOX'S WILL. [Extracted from the Registry of the Prerogative Court, of Canterbury.],

> [From a late Landon flaper] This is the last Will and Testument of ing, the Honourable Charles James Fox, of St. Anne's Hill, in the Parish of Cher:sey in the County of Surrey.

Whereas the late Mr. Redman, of Hatton garden, did, by his Will, give and titled at some future time to receive, to-The emperor was right in saying so, gether with the interest that will become Willoughby, for her own use and bene-[Here our worthy translator subjoined fit. I give, devise, and bequeath, all the rest and residue of my personal estate, of before disposed of, and also all and singular my real estates, whatsoever and wheresoever, unto my said wife, Eliza. beth Bridget, her Heirs, Executors, A.L.

Robert Spencer, Lord Fitz illiam, Mr. On Saturday last a motion was made in Hare, the Bishop of Down, Lord John An act for the gradual abolition of Slave- | value to the greatest degree; but these constitute, and appoint my said wife, YEAS .- Bayard, Beall, Biggs, Bruce, Elizabeth Bridget, sole Executrix of testamony whereof I have here unto set NAYS-Alsquith, Bett, Blackis- my hand and seal, this twenty first day of C. J. FOX, (L. S.)

MURDER OF J. P. PALM, You h ve no doubt read the particulars of the murder of the unfortunate Bookseller, Palm-and that to intimidate others, Bonaparte ordered 6000 copies of the s ntence of the mock tribunal to be circulated all over the continent- Some patriots here have in return, subscribed for the publication and distribution of 60,000 copies of the inclosed letter, which he wrote to his wife one hours before his execution You can form no idea of the general indignation this murder has excited here, and every where else in Germany. The pitty of his fate is only surpassed by the abhorrence of the Tyrant who commanded and directed the assassins who perpetrated tilis atrocious deed.

LETTERFROM J. P. PALM TO HIS

" In the Dungeon of the Military Prison of Brannau, Aug. 16, 1806 six o'clock in the morning-

" My dearest beloved-when you read those lines you are'a widow, and our dear, dear childern have no longer a father. My destiny is fixed, in five hours I ceas to live. But though I die the death of a criminal, you know that I have com hitted no crime; I fall a victim of the present calamitous times! times when an untimely end can neither dishonor a man whose whole life has been irreproachable, nor throw a stain on his surviving family. In our miserable days what vir tue has no expired by the hands of the executioner? - Do not let your affliction or the fate of a husband, deprive you of firmness to support the duties of a m th r. Our dear, dear babes (Oh, my God -Ishall never more press the nor you to my bursing heart!) have now a double claim on your maternal love, as well as on your maternal tend-ruess. Implant in their tender minds all those virtuons sentiments which made their good mother so very dear to their unfortunate father. I advise you to collect as soon as possible the wreck of our fortune (if any) and o retire with it to En. gland, or America. In those fortunate lands innocence is still secure, and patriousm is yet secure.

"In my last servent prayers, I recommend you all to the protection of an Ommipotent Providence, and to the compassion of those contemporary patri. ots of all countries whose noble bosom sympathise with my own seelings, a c deplore, if not weep over the destruction of liberty in wretched Germ iny.

"Reward the friend who delivers this, to forgive my murderer. May Heaven | eight hundred and fix. pardon him as much as I do. I cannot-I dire not say more-my breast is too full. Oh, my God! never-never more to b hold and embrace them and you!!!-Almighty Creator bless and preserve you all until we meet in a other and better world to part no more. With my 1 st breath, your ever affectionate husband.

" JOHN PALM."

Marine Intelligence.

PORT OF BALTIMORE.

From the Merchants' Coffee-House Books. December 15.

Arrived, brig Eliza Ann, Rathell, 27 Lays from St. Pierres, (Mart.)-Sugars, &c .- Lem. Taylor. Left there 16th Nov. brig Hunter, Rider, for Baltimore in 8 days; Venus, Prior, do. uncertain; schr. Friendship, Thisell, New York, 5 days; Adventure, Tredwell, Boston, 7 days; Betsey, Round, Marblehead, 7 days; brig Clothier, of Kennebunk, for New York uncertain. Nov. 24, lat. 24, 30, long. 66, 50, spoke schr. Betsey, Reeves, of Baltimore, from Point Petre, (Guad) out 9 days. Dec. 3, lat. 35, 30, long. 75, 15, spoke Fanny, 17 days from Guadaloupe, for Boston. 5th, lat. 37, in soundings spoke brig St. Croix Packet, from St. Croix, for Philadelphia. The brig Molly, Lee, for Philadelphia, sailed the day before the Eliza Ann; the brig Peace, Smart, for New York, sailed same day; the schooner Courier, Smith, of Baltimore, sailed for Guadaloupe 2 days before.

Also, schr. Francis, Merrill, from Portland, and another schr. from the northward. The fleet of 5 ships and several brigs and schrs. so long de tained below by head winds, got under way this evenig with the wind at S. W. and were standing up the river.

Boston, December 6. Arrived, schr. Ruby, Howard, of Portland, from St. Pierres, (Mart.)-Left, the Eliza Ann, of Baltimere, discharging; Conrier, of Baltimore, just arrived; Greenwich, Chatan, of Bal-

Also, schr. Federal Jack, from Baltimore.

December 8. Arrived, brig Hannah, Pierce, 46 days from St. Ubes. Left, Od. 22, ship Diana, of Alexandria, just arrived : Ihip Shepherdels, of Baltimore, da.; schr. Julier, Crosby, of do. for Philadelphia, ready to fail. Spoke, Nov. 18, lat 34, 10, long. 47, 49, a barque 48 days from cremen for Baltimore, with pallengers. Also, brig Edward, Baxter, 30 days from Port Royal, Mart. Spoke, Nov. 11, lat. 23, long. 12, brig Lyon, Wallis, of Bakimme, 12 days put, Fort de France, schr. Ansen, Woodbury, of Be- the new Gavoc composed by Vestris, the Polish verly, to fail in a few days for Loston abrig Hlarvey, tisve, of Mew-York, tosail in 3 days; the failed 3 days previous.

New York, December 13.

Arrived, The brig Julius Cestar, Lines, (mentioned in our last) 16 days from St. Croix. Nov. 29, lat. 26, 30, long. 70, spoke brig Northern Liberties from Guadaloupe for New York, (probably one of those below) next day, spoke sch'r ----, Gilpin, from Antigua for New York, and faid the brig Olivia, Teubner, and brig Traveller of Newburyport, both from Guadaloupe for New York, had been sent into Antigua.

pilot boat) the British October Packet Windtor Castle, from Falmouth, via Halifax-The ship Ambition, from Amsterdam-The ship Ann, from Ja aica-The flip Almy, captain Crow, from do. - The brig Peace, from Martinique -The brig E. Hamilton, from, St. Croix-3 other ships-3 brigs-and several schooners-besides feveral outward bound vessels-all at anchor in the Bay. The gale mentioned in our last, continued all day yesterday, with fnow and hail, the wind varying from N. i. to E. Yesterday the brig Fanny, from Demerara, and the fchr Vinelia, from Martinique, drifted athore on Governor's Itland-and it is faid a thip is athore on Long Island, opposite the city. rom the feverity of the weather, there is too much reafon to believe that this department of our gazette, will foon be filled with difasters.

Below, yesterday, (reported by the Thorne

2000 Gin Cases

JUST received from Amsterdam, and for JAMES BIAYS. Dec. 16

Tre Creditors Or DAWSON & THOMAS are requested to meet at Mr. James Bryden's Inn, This Evening, at 4 w'clock. Dec. 16

Wanted to Rent.

A Convenient HOUSE in the neighborhood of Market-street, for the accommodation of a genteel family. A situation between Hanoger and Gay-street woule be preferred. Apply to the Printer. Dec 16

NOTICE.

THE partnership of PASSMORE and BARE is this day dissolved by mutual consent. All persons having claims against said firm will please pre ent them to Jacob Bare for payment, and those indebted are requested to settle with him, he being duly authorised to close the business of the concern. GEO PASSMORE,

JACOB BARE. 2uw4t

Dec. 16 The City Polemic Society

WILL meet THIS EVENING at six o'clock, at the sign of the Phanix, directly opposi e Christ's Church, near Market-street bridge, where the following question will be offered for discussion :-

Was not George Washington the greatest man the world ev r produced?

The members of the Point Society are requested to honor us with their company. Admittance 12 1-2 Cents.

Dec. 16

THE STATE OF MARYLAND,

In Council, December 10, 18c6. TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

Mr. Louis Francois Leloup having produced to this board an exequator, ligned by the Prefident of the United States, and sealed with the scal of the said States, recognizing him as provisional commissary of commercial relations, from his imperial and royal majefly, the emperor of the French and king of Italy, at Baltimore: Ordered, that the said recognition be published for the information and government of the people of this state. Given in council at the city of Annapolis, under the feal of the state of Maryland, this tenth day of Decemand forgive, and teach our dear children | ber, in the year of our Lord one thousand

ROBERT WRIGHT. By the governor,

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the council. THOMAS JEFFERSON,

President of the United States of America. To all whom it may concern

Mr. Louis Francois Leloup having een appointed by his imperial and royal majesty, the emperor of the French and king of Italy, to be the provisional commissary of commercial relations, at Baltimore, I do hereby recogn ze him as such and declare him free to exercise and enjoy such functions, powers, and privileges as are allowed to the limitar agents of the most favored nations. In tellimony whereof, I have caused these letters to be made patent, and the le I of the United States to be hereunto affixed. Given under my hand at the city of alhington, the eleventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fix, and of the Independence of the United States of America the thirtieth THOMAS JEFFERSON. (Signed) By the president. · (Signed) JAMES MADISON,

Secretary of State. Ordered that the foregoing be published twice in each week, for the space of two weeks, in the Maryland Gazette at Annapolis, the American, the Federal Gazette, the Telegraphe, and the Evening Post at Baltimore, the kepublican Advoca e at Frederick-town, Mr. Grieves's paper at Hagers town, the Intelligencer at the city of Washington, and Mr. Smith's paper at

By order,

NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

December 16 22W2W

Stray Pig. AME to my sty on Wednesday, the 10th instant, a white Boar PIG. The owner may have him again by proving property and paying charges. LYNCH GRAY, 195, Bond-street, Fell's-Point.

Dec. 16

A CARD.

N'r. DUCLAIRACQ. ESPECTFULLY informs the gentlemen of Baltimore and its vicinity, who favored him with their company at his balls last winter, that his first ball will commence on TUESDAY, the 16th inst., and cotlinue every Tuesday, at the house formerly occupied by Mr. Thomas Dob. bin, Market-street, near the bridge; any friends or acquaintance they please to introduce, will be received with pleasure. Hisdays of tuition are Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays, at 5 o'clock, at the said house: where the following fashionable dances are bound to the City of St. Domingo. Left at taught, viz. Waltzes, the Minuet de la Conrt, Minuer Lanced in Cinderella, &c.

Sale by Auction,

THIS DAY,

The 16th instant, at 10 o'clock, at our auction romn, head of Frederick-street dock, will come mence the sale of

A Variety of Dry Goods;

After which at 12 o'clock, 25 bhds and 50 barrels Sugar, & 26 puncheons New England Rum, 15 do. Autigus Rum, 60 bags Coffee, 20 seroons Indigo, Brands, Gin, &c. &c.

At private sale, 700 boxes White and Brown Hav. Sugar. VAN WYCK & DORSEY, Auct'rs.

sale by Auction.

THIS DAY.

The 16th instant, at 10 o'clock, at our auction room at the head of Frederick-street duck, will be soin on a credit,

Seven small packages of assorted HARD. WARE, calculated for the West-India market, consisting of Table Knives, Pen Knives, Razors, Scissors, &c. VAN WYCK & DORSEY, Auct'rs.

Sale by Auction.

The 23d instant, at 11 e'clock, at the two-story brick house, South Charles-street, a little above New Church street, and opposite to the new. buildings of Mr. Lorman, will commence the

A VARIETY OF HOUSEHOLD AND KITCHEN FURNITURE. THOMAS CHASE, Auct'r.

D.c. 16

For Charleston, S C.

The fine, strong Danish Brig FREUND CHAF., Captain P O. Former; will take freight and passengers on very low terms, and sails in all this week .--

HAZLEHURST, BROTHERS & CO. or JOHN BOLTE, Ship-Broker. December 16

For Freight or harter, To any of the Windward Islands, The Schooner

SUNBURY, Capt. Kelley ;-burthen abous 700 barrels; a good new vessel. Freight will be taken on ressonable terms, by making application to the master on board at Frederick street nock, to JOSEPH SMITH, Harbor-Master, or BENJAMIN D. GALLIN. 61, Smith's wharf.

FOR SALE AS ABOVE, 200 boxes Nova Scotia smoked HERRINGS. Likewise,

A few boxes COD FISH, in good shipping Dec. 16

For Washington, N. C. -The Sloop 111

CUMBERI ND, Now lying at Barron's wharf,

Fell's Point; will sail on Sunday next. For freight or passage apply on board, or at No. 33, Market street, Fell's-Point.

A. C SCHNEEMANN. Dec. 16

Freight Wanted To the West-Indies, for The Brig

Seth Dunham, Master ;- i burt! en 1700 burrels; she now undergoing a complete upair, and will I ready to receive a cargo in five days. App 14

THOMAS MAREAN,

No. 86, Bowly's wha

John B. Jauffret,

No. 42, NORTH GAY-SIRBET. TIAS received per the brig Telemach: II from Trinidad, in Cuba, 600 boxes white and brown SUGARS, 300 HIDES, 9 tons FUSTIC.

Dec. 16

On Hand, Short yellow Nankeens, entitled to drawb. tek Sail Cloth

Hyson, Young Hyson and Imperial Tea all of which he offers for sale on the us und Dissolution of Partnership. THE partnership or joint trade in compa my heretofore existing between Thomas Ram' ray and Martha Glass, Grocers, on the west s of Bond-street, Fell's Point, is this day me ally dissolved. All persons having any cl against the said partnership or joint trad company, are requested to bring them i MARTHA GLASS, who will pay and so the same; and all persons indebted to ei of the subscribers for ealings at their stor otherwise in the said joint trade, are reques to pay the same to Martha Glass, who alone e is cient acquittances. The business in future will be carried on at the same place by

Dec. 16

MARTHA GLASS. THOS. RAMBAY.

Stop John Ernst! AND RECEIVE 100 Dollars Reward!

TOHN ERNST hired a mare from me on J Thursday the 27th of November, will engaged to return her in 7 days-and whereas, to said Ernst has not yet returned, and as there is good reason to believe he has run off with said mare, the shove reward is offered for his apprehension. He undertook to collect monics for several persons, and stated differently asto where he was going; but Little York, Carlisle and Lancaster were among the places mentioned. Ernst is a German, and sometime since kept bar in Mornewick's Hanseatic Hotels He is about 50 years of age, of alender make. and rather a miserable looking being with small face, eyes sunk, checks hollow, and feeth remarkably long with scarcely any gumps. The mare he has taken off with him was a mired grey, with dark tail and mane I Dearly fullblooded, 15 hands high, well made, and well gaited. The bridle was a double straffle, one bitt part chain. The above reward will be pail if Expet and ; mare is returned to the subscriber in thities more ; and & dollars if Ernst securrd in any jail Withir 300 miles of said city.

authorised to receive the same and give su di-