cises, &c. &c.

The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the First Part, is, to teach | v ssels and others, trading to the West Indies, an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as i terms. well as in orthography. The words of two syllabics are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the scunds of vowes and dipthongs, whether short, long, middle or

The THIRD PART consists of words less amiliar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculaterleto give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject

The wesens for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short apprepriate reasing lessons. The orthography of Joursan, and the pretunciation of Walker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book-and it is presumed are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.
