EBUCATION.

THE Academy conducted by G. BOURNE. -Mo.76, Boodstreet, F. T. will open after the. Chairtan recession, on Monday, the 12th of Ja.

The object of the befor being the expansion of his pupil's intellects, combined with the infusion and establishment of the most correct moral principles, so as to render the youther committed to his sharge both the opnament and beast of society, necessarily oblig s him to confine his number: hence, no more can be admitted than compost with the plan adopted. Three or four vacancies only at present exist, which may be filled up on application at the -meademy, have the talk

- The Dead Languages, the French and the English are all taught, and in that manner, which renders the student able, not only to determine with precision the grammatical correctness of the authors whom he may read, but also to feel the brauties which are discoverable in consequence of the possession of that peculiar quality of the understanling which we call took. The common branches of education, such as Book keeping, Navigation, Arthmetic, &c. receive a due degree of attention—and the whole course of tuition is no arranged, as to suit the views and designs of the parent or guardian who desires the instruction of his youth.

The terms may be known, and all enquiries answered by a visit at No. 76, Bond street, Fell's Point.

French Night School.

ATOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH MIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charlesstreet i test to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils, I have no need—it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned with. out grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly egree, that after having taught the French limguage to the most respected Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I aught to be a competent judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 18th of March. JOSEPH PAILLOTTET:

This day is finished, AN ADDITION OF bood Spelling Books, From the 4th and last English edition.

BY LINDLAY MURRAY: Author of English Grammer, Introduction to English Gramman, English Reader, Exer-

Cises, &c. &c. The above work is comprehended under THERE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the First PART, is, to teach Leave Washington every Friday at 7 th mi an accurate pronunciation of the elementary

The SECOND PART of the work affords the turning. Leave the Ridg at 1 p. m. on Sun- learner considerable aid in pronunciation, a day and arrive at Washington on Tucaday by well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowels and dipthongs, whether short, long, middle or familiar to children than those of the preceding parts i of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the pronunciation of Walter have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book-and it is presumed inclined to dispute.

Also just received, 2000 copies of a New Spelling Book, called THE PHILADELPHIA DILWORTH'S SPEL-LING BOOK, IMPROVED.

The present edition being on the same plan of a late Glasgow publication (with considerable improvements) is confidently recommended to the serious attention of teachers, parents and guardians.
