THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Co-partnership, Adventures, &c. putting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated.
It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undig-ested and unsettled.
Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it to their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers.
Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated.
Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment.

passage from Annapolis to this city, he fell overboard and was unfortunately drowned on the morning of the 22d day of Decemused for the recovery of the Body, but the persons employed therein have been unsuccessful. The object of this advertisement is respectfully to request those who may find the body to return it to his afflicted parents, if practicable—a generous reward will be given and compensation made for all expense attending it. If it is not convenient to send the body to Baltimore they will lay his parents under a perpetual obligation by decently interring it.

The following is a description of his person and dress: He had on a black close coat, a pair of orange-colored pantaloons, and a great coat of thick hairy cloth—he was about 5 feet 8 inches high, thin face, with prominent feahas not pledged to offer, but his official conduct shall give universal satisfaction, yet is willing to say, that his discretionary powers shall be
