

EDUCATION.

THE Academy conducted by G. BOURNE, No. 76, Bond-street, F. P. will open after the Christmas-vacation, on Monday, the 12th of January.

The object of the tutor being the expansion of his pupils' intellects, combined with the infusion and establishment of the most correct moral principles, so as to render the youths committed to his charge both the ornament and boast of society, necessarily obliges him to confine his number: hence, no more can be admitted than vacant with the plan adopted. Three or four vacancies only at present exist, which may be filled up on application at the academy.

The Dead Languages, the French and the English are all taught, and in that manner, which renders the student able, not only to determine with precision the grammatical correctness of the authors whom he may read, but also to feel the beauties which are discoverable in consequence of the possession of that peculiar quality of the understanding which we call taste. The common branches of education, such as Book-keeping, Navigation, Arithmetic, &c. receive a due degree of attention—and the whole course of tuition is so arranged, as to suit the views and designs of the parent or guardian who desires the instruction of his youth.

The terms may be known, and all enquiries answered by a visit at No. 76, Bond-street, Fell's Point.

French Night School.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I the subscriber, Teacher and Translator of the French & English Tongues, have resumed the FRENCH NIGHT SCHOOL in my common dwelling, between Light-street and Charles-street; but to promise to do wonders in behalf of my pupils, I have no need—it suffices to tell them that no language can be learned without grammatical rules, even as far as translation; the master and scholars must take a great deal of pains; also, that every person is not capable to learn a foreign language. Those impartial judges who know me will certainly agree, that after having taught the French Language to the most respectable Ladies and Gentlemen of America, during more than 46 years, I ought to be a competent Judge. I would advise those promising youths who will favor me with encouragement, to apply as soon as possible, so that they may get some benefit of their studies by the 15th of March.

ALSO,

N. B. Private tuition, any hour during the day, so as to accommodate the different scholars who may apply.

This day is finished,

AN ADDITION OF 6000 Spelling Books, From the 4th and last English edition.

BY LINDLEY MURRAY.

Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c. &c.

The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowels and diphthongs, whether short, long, middle or broad.

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the pronunciation of Walker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book—and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.

Also just received,

2000 copies of a New Spelling Book, called THE PHILADELPHIA DILWORTH'S SPELLING BOOK, IMPROVED.

The present edition being on the same plan of a late Glasgow publication (with considerable improvements) is confidently recommended to the serious attention of teachers, parents and guardians.

A general assortment of SCHOOL BOOKS and STATIONARY—which will be sold on accommodating terms to those who buy for retail.

All kinds of Book and Job Printing, Commercial and Law Blanks, &c. &c. executed in the neatest manner at the established prices, by GEORGE DOBBIN & MURPHY, No. 10, Baltimore-st. opposite Centre market.

THE subscriber will dispose of that valuable Farm and Improvements which formerly belonged to old Major Batten, containing 327 acres, (more or less) 140 whereof are covered with very heavy Timber of various descriptions; distant from the city of Baltimore between 6 and 7 miles, and very convenient to the Falls Turnpike Road—it may be advantageously divided into two equal parts, allowing to each a just proportion of the Timber.

Also, another Tract of Land and Improvements, within about the same distance from the city, westerly, containing 362 acres, (more or less.) a small proportion whereof is cleared, the residue as heavily timbered as any Land in Baltimore county—On this tract there is an excellent situation for a Saw Mill, having a fall of 20 feet; the stream which runs through it, is thought sufficient to keep the mill employed about two thirds of the year.

Also, a small tract of unimproved Land, within 4 miles of the city, containing 45 acres, (more or less.) 2/3 whereof are covered with Timber, the residue clear. This tract has the advantage of the New Liberty Road passing through the upper and cleared part of it which renders it an eligible situation for a Public House.

He had on when he absconded a short round Tustian jacket, a pair of velveten pantaloons, white waistcoat and black hat; however he had in his possession some other clothes and he will probably change his dress.—He took with him a dark brown mixed cloth long coat and waistcoat, several pair of nankeen pantaloons. 100 Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the subscribers, living in Baltimore, on Sunday morning, the 6th July, a negro man named ELIJAH. He is about twenty years of age, five feet, ten or eleven inches high; slender round the waist, but is a remarkable strong, big limbed fellow. He is a light blackman; has a large flat nose, with very thick prominent lips; has his wool cut, so as to form a roll over the top of his head. He is a ready-witted fellow, smart in answering questions; when spoken to in a good humor, generally laughs, and shows a handsome set of teeth; walks with a long step, and rocking motion with his body. He has taken with him a variety of cloths, among which are a pair of nankeen pantaloons; coarse linen shirt, and trousers; an old castor hat, and a festoon round about jacket. We purchased him about 12 months since, of Mr. Richard Key Heath, acting as attorney of Susanna Wilson, of Kent county, to which place he has probably gone. Whoever will apprehend the above mentioned slave, and lodge him in any jail, so that we may get him again, shall receive 40 dollars, if taken in Maryland, and the above reward, if taken out of the said state, with all reasonable charges if brought home.
