Dr. Solomon Bameastle, DENTIET,

LATELY FROM LONDON; TOST respectfully informs the Ladies and IVI Gentlemen of Baltimore, that he sets natural and artificial Teeth on an entire new principle, with figatures, springs, and pivots, or on places of gold, in such a manner as the nicest eye of discernment on the closest inspection, cannot properly discover that there was ever any derangement, so that the Teeth are not only of a beautiful complexion but perfectly useful. The tarter which is so destructive to Teeth, that it not only blackens, but if neglected, will entirely destroy them, he removes without injuring the enamel, and restores them to their native whiteness.

as much case as any other sound Tooth, and their further decay prevented.

From the many years experience in the sounds, &c. practice of extracting Teeth, he has acquired the safest, and easiest method of operating, as learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as the nature of circumstances can possibly ad-

If indisputable abilities, tenderness and care in the different operations, and the most implicit candor in advice to patients, are the necessary essentials to procure promotion in broad. ns line of profession, such essentials will invariably, not be wanting to attract the attention, and thereby merit a share of encourage ment from an impartial public.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of voweis and dipthongs, whether short, long, middle or

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short apprepriate reading lessons. The orthography of Juincon, and the pronunciation of Waiker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book-and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.

Insurances upon Lives PELICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF LONDON. HE Pelic, in Life Justiance Company, of Landen, was established in the year 1797, by a numerous and tespectable ; requietary, upon an extensive constal, vested in the public funds, with the additional responsibility of excey individual propriet r. The board of directors, in consequence of repeated applications on the subject, but ingoing the term it edute extend their cur grements to the continent of America, deem it proper beleffe to suggest to the minds of the pathic, the numerous and important tenefits resulting from such an institution to every rinth and class of society.

Persons in the receipt of income arising from estates dependent upon tile-profes in usiness-offices, civil or mini ry-by the yearly payment of a moderate premium, may secure at their death an adequate provision for their families, relations, or friends.—Fines payable on bases rem walne at the death of particular persons, may be provided for by insuring the lives of such persons. Insurance affords the means of reimbursement to those who advance money upon life-annuities, and in many cases furnishes ample security for the lean of money. Persons entitled to property in expect incy or reversio., or upon attaining . a given age, may sceure an enquivalent, in case their interests should be affected by premature death. In a variety of other instances. and most peculiarly as applicable to persons engaged in commercial pursuits, or in the enjoyment of casual income, this valuable precaution will establish a resource to which families may book with confidence and security. and by which the distresses too often attendant upor luman life, may be alleviated or effectually prevented. The rates of premium for such insurances will be rendered as moderate as possible, and in every instance proportioned to the age, health, and other circumstances of the life as-
