Dr. Solomon Barneastle, DENTIST,

LATELY FROM LONDON, MOST respectfully informs the Ludies and Gentlemen of Baltimore, that he sets. natural and artificial Teeth on an entire new principle, with ligatures, springs, and pivots, or on plates of gold, in such a manner as the nicest eye of discernment on the closest inspection, cannot properly discover that there was ever any derangement, so that the Teeth are not only of a beautiful complexion but per-Ectly useful. The tarter which is so destructive to Teeth, that it not only blackens, but if neglected, will entirely destroy them, he removes without injuring the enamel, and res.o.es them to their native whiteness.

Decayed Teeth plugged, so as to chew with as much ease as any other sound Tooth, and their further decay prevented.

From the many years experience in the practice of extracting Teeth, he has acquired this General Assembly, that the crime the safest, and easiest method of operating, as the nature of circumstances can possibly ad-

If indisputable abilities, tenderness and care in the different operations, and the most implicit candor in advice to patients, are the necessary essentials to procure promotion in | broad. his line of profession, such essentials will invariably not be wanting to attract the attention, and thereby merif a share of encourage-

This day is finished, AN ADDITION OF 6000 Spelling Books, From the 4th and last English edition.

BY LINDLEY MURRAY: Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c. &c.

The above work is comprehended under THREE gereral divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learuer considerable aid in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowe's and dipthougs, whether short, long, mindle or

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellareous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the pronunciation of Walter have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book-and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.

Aiso just received, 2000 copies of a New Spelling Book, called THE PHILADELPHIA DILWORTH'S SPEL-LING BOOK, IMPROVED.

The present edition being on the same plan of a late Glasgow publication (with considera-) ble in proviments) is empficiently recommended to the serious attention of teachers, parents and geardians.

Insurances upon Lives PELICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANI. OF LONDON.

THE Pelican Life Insurance Company, of London, was established in the year 1797, by a numerous and respectable proprietary, upon an extensive capital, vested in the public funds, with the additional responsibility of every individual proprietor. The board of directors, in consequence of repeated applications on the subject, having determined to extend their engagements to the continent of America, deem it proper briefly to suggest to the minds of the public, the numerous and ime portant benefits resulting from such an institution to every rank and class of society. Persons in the receipt of income arising from estates dependent upon life-profits in usiness-offices, civil or military-by the yearly payment of a moderate premium, may secure at their death an adequate provision for their families, relations, or friends.—Fines payable on leases renewable at the death of particular persons, may be provided for by insuring the lives of such persons. Insurance affords the means of reimbursement to those who advance money upon life-annuities, and in many cases furnishes ample security for the l an of money. Persons entitled to property in expectancy or reversion, or upon attaining a given age, may secure an enquivalent, in case their interests should be affected by premature death. "In a variety of other instances. and most peculiarly as applicable to persons engaged in commercial pursuits, or in the enjoyment of casual income, this valuable precaution will establish a resource to which families may look with confidence and security. and by which the distresses too often attendant upon human life, may be alleviated or effectually prevented.

The rates of premium for such insurances will be rendered as moderate as possible, and in every instance proportioned to the age, health, and other circumstances of the life as-

The terms will be made known on application at the Phoenix Fire Office, in Seconda stroet. January 15
