FEBRUARY 2d, 1807. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT agreeably to charter the Stockhold-Lers in the Maryland Insurance Company, are called upon to renew their notes in the present month.

Likewise, that an election for thirteen directors will be held at the office of the said company, on the first Monday in March next. JOHN HOLLINS, President. N. B. No transfers will be made from the 4th inst. until after the election of officers.

The Undersigned BOUT 10 days since notified in the public Apapers the loss of three promissory notes, bearing the signatures of James Sterling, John Reinecker, and Henry and Geo. Gassaway :they proved to have been mislaid, and are now_ recovered. The object of this notice is for the purpose of deing away any impression the former caution would have produced. February 2

To an Impartial Public. TARIOUS reports having been spread to

V the detriment of my character, tending. to make an impartial public believe of my being concerned in the failure of Charles Mornewick-I hereby declare that I never was, nor am at present in the most distant connection with him, neither have I had any thing belonging to him in my possession. The furniture in the Hanseatick Hotel is my sole property, and the business carried on by me is for my only account. Whoever should doubt this assertion will-please to call on Mr. Peter Arn Karthaus, Merchant of this place, who will fully convince them thereof -I flatter myself to give entire satisfaction to those who favor me with their patronage, by a prompt attention to the fulfilment of their wishes, and by the moderation of my charges. io the Public.

THE Subscriber, who has been em-L pioyed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Co-partnership, Auventures, Uc. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undigested and unsettled.

Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in terms some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers. Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated.

Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment. H. O. HEBERT,

PELICAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIA OF LONDON.

HE Pelican Life Insurance Company, of London, was established in the tear 1797, by a numerous and respectable propriestary, upon an extensive capital, rested in the public funds, with the additional responsibility of every individual proprietor. The board of directors, in consequence of repeated applications on the subject, having determined to extend their engagements to the continent of America, deem it proper briefly to suggest to the minds of the public, the numerous and important benefits resulting from such an institution to every rank and class of society. Persons in the receipt of income grising from estates dependent upon life-procts in usiness-offices, civil or military-by the yearly payment of a moderate premium, may secure at their death an adequate provision for their samilies, relations, or friends.-Fines payable on leases renewable at the death of particular persons, may be provided for by insuring the lives of such persons. Insirance affords the means of reimbursement to those who advance money upon life-annuities, and in many cases furnishes ample security for the loan of money. Persons entitled to property in expectancy or reversion, or upon attaining a given age, may secure an enquivalent in case their interests should be affected by premature death. In a variety of other instances, and most peculiarly as applicable to persons engaged in commercial pursuits, or in the enjoyment of casual income, this valuable precaution will establish a resource to which families may look with confidence and security. and by which the distresses too often attendand upon human life, may be alleviated or effectuobject contemplated, may become subscribers ally prevented. The rates of premium for such insurances will be rendered as moderate as possible, and in every instance proportioned to the age: health, and other circumstances of the life as-
