Mr. Lee expressed a wish, as well at the instance of the marshal as of the accused, that the court would give directions whether they were to have the privilege of pen, ink and paper. The court declined giving any positive direction on the point. They expressed an opinion that they saw no objection to the inclulgence, but rested it on the discretion of the marshal, of whose humanity and faithful performance of duty there could be no doubt.

LONDON, Nov. 24.

Instruction to the commanders of his Majesty's ships of war and privateers, and to the Judges of the court of admiralty. Given at the court at St. James' the 14th of November, 1806, in the 47th respecting Hesse, are now every where New-Haven in 6 days; brig Mary-Jane, year of his Majesty's reign.-

" Whereas we have received satisfactory assurance that our ally the emperor of Russia, has permitted, and now permits his subjects to trade in innocent articles with France and her allies. Our will and pleasure is, and we do hereby order and enjoin the commanders of our ships of war and pri ateers, that they do not seize and detain the goods of the subjects of our ally the emperor of Russia, being innocent articles, on account of so trading And we do further direct the judges of our high court ofadmiralty & of our courts of vice admiralty, forthwith send and Hamburgh, through Mecklento release goods, being innocent articles, burg, is cut off by the French; Bernathe property of Russian subjects, which dotte, with from ten to fifteen thousand have been or shall be detained, on ac-, men, being between Gustrow and Roscount of being engaged in a trade with tock. In the latter they have levied France or her allies.

NEW YORK, January 31. An express arrived last evening from Albamy, brings intelligence that the House of Af- i sembly met on Tuesday, and proceeded i emediately to organize themselves; and that Anally denominated a Lewilite. We may, there- i fore, from this circumflance forma pretty accurate calculation of the political complexion of the Legitlature.

It would appear by the French having arre?ed the four great Littih Capitalilla in Hamthurg. Meffrs. Thornson, Parith, Burrower, and George Smith, that their object must be to hat- I tin towards Thorn and the Vistula; the midate the Senate or government of that city, navigation of the river of that city is imin order to extert a large contribution; as the property of thefe. Houses together cannot be lets than ten millions of dol ars, and I should it be conficeted. England would un foultealt make the fortresses and garrisons are occupied reprilate on Hamburg property within her pos- ; by invalids. er : otherwite we cannot account for their not having arrefled the other British residents in Hamburg.

LAST NIGHT BUT ONE.

By particular request-for Ladies.

Surprising Agility.

MR. MANFREDI,

And his company, consisting of five perform. ers-three la lies and two gentlemen, Offer their services to the public, and respectfully inform them that their next performance will be

THIS EVENING, Feb. 4, At Mr. Eryden's New Assembly Room. The performance will commence

-By the Little American, with A dance in Character on the TIGHT ROPE, - with the Balance Pole.

Miss Louisa will dance a Spanish dance on the rope. . Miss Catherine will exhibit on the rope, a comic dance, after which she will dance a serious one. Madam Manfredi will dance a Turkish dance on the rope, with the balance pole-she will perform the feat of the moving board. Mr. and Mrs. Manfredi will give a collation to two persons on the rope. Mr. Manfredi will dance an English hornpipe on the rope, and afterwards dance the Cossac dance.

Mr. Manfredi will dance with two Baskets tied to his feet, after which he will dance with two Boys in the same manner, without the balance pole. He will beat the Drum; play the French Horn; and jump backward and forward over a Handkerchief.

Miss Catherine will dance without the balance pole, and perform several very surprising and agreeable feats on the rope.

Madam Manfredi will play a handsome air on the Mandoline without the aid of the balance pole, and afterwards display two flags at the same moment. Mr. Manfredi, without the aid of the balance pole, will go through the surprising feat of the hoop; also the Spanish cloak, and exhibit the feat of the glass of wine in the hoop. GRAND MILITARY EVOLUTIONS, &c. Mr. Manfredi will perform the Drunken | ket.

The body of his Sevene Highness the i Duke of Brunswick was opened and embalmed at Altona; on opening the skull, it was found that the wound which this lamented Prince received was mortal. His Highness bore the exquisite torture occasioned by the wound with the utmost fortitude and resignation, but when he learnt the loss of his Dominions, his heart began to break.

His Son the Duke of Brunswick Oclo, who capitulated with Gen. Blucher, and who so hereleally defended the gate of Lubeck, arrived at his father's house the day after his death. His Highness's horses were directly sold by public auction: his jewels and other effects will be sold instantly. An Estafette has been sent to Napoleon at Berlin, requesting that the Duke's venerable remains may be deposited in the family vault of his ancestors. All the treasure, publick records, &c. were removed from Berlin to Stettin, previous to the arrival of the French at the former.
