To the Public.

THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Co-partnership, Adventure, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undigested and unsettled.

Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers.

Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated. Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment.

This day is finished,

AN ADDITION OF
6000 Spelling Books,
From the 4th and last English edition.
BY LINDEY MURRAY.
Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c. &c.
The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.
The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowels and diphthongs, whether short, long, middle or broad.
The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.
The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the pronunciation of Walker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book—and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.
Also just received,
2000 copies of a New Spelling Book, called THE PHILADELPHIA DILWORTH'S SPELLING BOOK, IMPROVED.
The present edition being on the same plan of a late Glasgow publication (with considerable improvements) is confidently recommended to the serious attention of teachers, parents and guardians.
On Hand,
A general assortment of SCHOOL BOOKS and STATIONARY—which will be sold on accommodating terms to those who buy for retail.
All kinds of Book and Job Printing, Commercial and Law Blanks, &c. &c. executed in the neatest manner at the established prices, by

To the Voters of the City and County of Baltimore.

THE subscriber being encouraged by a number of the disinterested supporters of the candidates, at the late election, is induced respectfully to renew his solicitations for your suffrages at the next election for the office of Sheriff. He returns his grateful acknowledgments to those friends who interested themselves for him in his late attempt, and assures them, that their generous support has excited those sentiments that link gratitude to kindness; and he flatters himself that by a continuation of their friendship, and the patronage of his fellow citizens generally, he will be enabled to obtain the office; and, if successful, will endeavor by rectitude of conduct, to give general satisfaction.

LOOK OUT!
RAN away from the office of the American, yesterday morning, after neglecting to leave a great number of subscribers to this paper in his usual round, JOHN BROWN, carrier of the American in Old-Town. He is nearly 16 years of age; about four feet ten inches high; has flaxen hair, a fair complexion, and red and full cheeks: His face is rather round than long; he does not speak fast, but somewhat plausibly. He was seen yesterday morning in Old-Town. It is believed that he has made the best of his way to Frederick-town, being the son of George Brown, miller, in the vicinity of that place. He had on a pair of Eneet's cord pantaloons; striped (the stripes running cross-wise) swan-down waistcoat and brown cloth sailor jacket; a new hat, good shoes and stockings. Whoever will apprehend the said boy and bring him to the Printing Office of the American, or secure him in any jail so that his master gets him again, shall have, if taken in the city of Baltimore, five dollars; and if out of the county the above reward.
N. B. Those who harbor John Brown, or his relatives, friends or strangers to him, may depend upon being prosecuted with the utmost rigor that the law will justify.

WHEREAS a certain John Levy, son of Thomas Levy, (alias Levy) of the city of Baltimore, about the 10th of October, 1805, embarked on board the schooner Hazard, Captain Joseph Callender, of E. L. N., to return to the United States, and has not since been heard of.
This is to give notice, that the above reward will be given by the subscriber, to any person giving satisfactory information, so that he may be found. He is about 15 years old, very cross-eyed, and excessively stupid.

From the above Scheme, it appears that there are less than two Blanks to a Prize, and that the Prizes are to be paid without deduction. The advantages offered to adventurers, and the very charitable object to which the money is to be applied, induce the Managers to hope that a speedy sale of the tickets will enable them to commence drawing at an early day. All prizes will be paid in sixty days after the completion of the drawing, and such prizes as are not demanded within twelve months, will be considered as generous donations to the truly charitable object of the Lottery.
Tickets may be had of the Managers, and such other persons as they may appoint to sell. Prizes in the Lotteries now drawing in this city, will be received in payment for tickets.

JOHN LE TELLIER,

DENTIST,
In St. Paul's Lane, two doors above the P.O. Office.
OFFERS his services to the inhabitants of Baltimore and its vicinity in every branch of his profession, particularly in restoring the Teeth to their natural elegance without injuring their enamel, by cleansing them from that corrosive substance called Tarar, which adheres to them, it being of a yellow or black appearance, producing Scurvy, causing an offensive breath, decaying of the Teeth, or a wasting of the Gums and Boney process of the jaw, till they drop out.
Persons unto whom nature has denied the satisfaction of lasting natural Teeth may have their loss supplied by artificial ones, set with such nicety and beauty, that they cannot be distinguished from natural, and of materials that will not change to an unnatural colour. Hollow ones he plugs so as to prevent them from being painful or further decaying for many years, and restitutes those with the Gums that are much depreciated by carelessness or corroding medicines. Likewise extracts such as are too far gone to save.
CERTIFICATE.
Mr. LE TELLIER is possessed of unexceptionable abilities in the line of his profession, and is authorised by me to use the Patent Perpendicular Extracting Instruments in all places where the right is not disposed of.
