PROSPECTUS
Of a Daily Newspaper, to be published on Fell's Point, entitled
FELL'S-POINT
COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

THE editors of this paper having received flattering support from some of the most respectable men on Fell's-Point, and profiting by the patronage of their fellow-citizens generally, have been induced to throw themselves upon the generosity of an enlightened public for encouragement. From the many obvious advantages to be derived from such an establishment as is contemplated by the editors, they entertain the most sanguine expectations of success.
It is intended that their paper shall be dedicated chiefly to the interests of the commercial part of the community. As they will have advantages which no other printers in the city of Baltimore can possibly possess, in the obtaining marine intelligence, their paper cannot fail of being interesting to the merchant.
Correspondences will be established on a permanent footing with men of high rank and opportunity, in different parts of the U. States; and, should sufficient encouragement be offered, in Europe, by which they will obtain the latest and most important information without delay.—In short, every exertion that lies in their power will be made to render the "Commercial Advertiser," interesting and amusing.
They do not deem it necessary to give a detail to the reader of their political opinions, for whatever political sentiments they may privately profess, the promulgation of them through a public print, they conceive, could produce no beneficial effect either to the reader or to themselves;—they are anxious for the prosperity of the United States; and whilst the sentiments of their hearts are favorable to the Union, their minds shall never be swayed by the bickerings of political demagogues. To preserve the paper free and uncontaminated from the ebullitions of partisans, will be their peculiar study. To miscellaneous productions, and disquisitions on subjects which may be productive of utility, couched in a decent style, free access will be given to their columns—but communications injurious to the reputation of individuals, will always be rejected.

As the editors are the first who have ventured on an establishment of this nature for some time past at Fell's-Point, they feel confident that the fostering aid of its citizens will be extended towards them with cheerfulness—and that their establishment will not be permitted to dwindle into nothing from the want of the patronage of their fellow-citizens. Fell's-Point has now become too populous, the healthy, and too respectable, to be entirely dependent on the town for all the printing which it requires—They are confident that few could be found who would not rather contribute to the support of a paper in the midst of them, dedicated to their interests, and affording so many advantages as the present times, than be subjected to the inconveniences of walking five or six miles for all printing requisites for their business. Besides the inconveniences which will be removed, the benefit of supporting a paper of their own, we are persuaded, would have an inestimable weight in the minds of their fellow-citizens of Fell's-Point.
They consider it as quite unnecessary to dilate upon their own capacities—trial alone will be sufficient to convince their patrons of the correctness or incorrectness of their publications. Along and steady application to their business, emboldens them to come forward with confidence, pledging themselves to execute whatever a generous public may be pleased to favor them with; in a spirit of workmanlike and conscientious judgment, not inferior to any other office in Baltimore.

JOHN WANE & CO.
TERMS.
The Fell's-Point Commercial Advertiser shall be printed on a regular basis, with good materials.
The price to subscribers will be seven dollars per annum, payable half yearly.—The paper will be issued on from the arrangements can be made.
The citizens will be waited on in a few days for their signatures.
