ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE HAGERS-TOWN BANK.

WE the subscribers, hereby associate and mutually agree, to form a Banking company, to be called and known by the name of THE HAGERS-TOWN BANK...

Article 1. The capital stock of the said Bank shall be limited to five hundred thousand dollars, to consist of ten thousand shares of fifty dollars each...

Article 2. It shall be the duty of the president and directors herein appointed, to have the articles of this association printed in the newspapers at Hagers-town, the Herald and Republican Advocate, in Frederick-town, the American and Federal Gazette, in Baltimore, and in the papers of Chambersburg, in Pennsylvania, and Martinsburg, in Virginia...

Article 3. The subscriptions shall be opened at the places hereinafter mentioned, by the commissioners, or any two of them, on the first Monday in March next, and remain open for three days, from 10 o'clock each day, unless the allotted number of shares are taken or subscribed...

Article 4. Every subscriber shall pay to the commissioners, at the time of subscribing, the sum of five dollars, on each share, or the may subscribe and the further sum of five dollars, on each share, on the first Monday in May next...

Article 5. If any stockholder shall fail to pay up his, her or their installments, of five dollars on each share, on the first Monday in May next, such stockholder shall forfeit to the use of the company, all monies paid antecedently to such failure...

Article 6. No subscriber or stockholder, or member of the said company, shall be answerable in his person or individual property for any contract or engagement of the said company, or for any losses, deficiencies or failures of the capital stock of the said company...

Article 7. The affairs of the bank shall be managed by ten directors and a president, seven of whom, and the president, shall reside in Washington county; one in Baltimore county, one in Frederick county, and one in Allegany county...

Article 8. The affairs of the bank shall be managed by ten directors and a president, seven of whom, and the president, shall reside in Washington county; one in Baltimore county, one in Frederick county, and one in Allegany county...

Article 9. No person shall be admitted to take his seat as director, unless he shall be at the time a stockholder, and if he shall at any time cease to be a stockholder, he shall cease to be a director...

shall be authorized to do, except that the compensation to be allowed to the president of the bank shall be fixed and determined by the first directors to be chosen by the stockholders.

Article 8. In choosing directors, the stockholders shall be entitled to vote as follows:— For one share, and not exceeding two, one vote each; for every two shares above two, and not exceeding ten, one vote; for every four shares above ten, and not exceeding thirty, one vote; for every six shares above thirty, and not exceeding sixty, and not exceeding one hundred, one vote; and for every ten shares above one hundred, one vote; but no person or body politic shall be entitled to a greater number than thirty votes, and all votes at elections for directors shall be by ballot, delivered in person or by proxy.

Article 9. No person shall be admitted to take his seat as director, unless he shall be at the time a stockholder, and if he shall at any time cease to be a stockholder, he shall cease to be a director.

Article 10. If the president shall be chosen hereafter out of the number of directors, his place shall be supplied by the directors from among the stockholders; if a vacancy shall at any time happen among the directors, by death, resignation or otherwise, the directors shall elect another to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the year, from among the stockholders, and in case of sickness, or necessary absence, of the president, he shall, in writing, appoint one of the board of directors to act as president pro tempore.

Article 11. The board of directors shall have power to appoint a president and other officers and servants, for conducting the business of the company, and shall fix the compensation to be allowed them, which expenses shall be defrayed out of the funds of the company.

The board of directors shall also have power to purchase, lease or rent a proper building, in Hagers-Town, for the bank, at the expense of the company; they shall likewise have power to make, revise, alter or amend, rules, orders, by-laws and regulations for the government of the company, and that of their officers, servants, and affairs, as a majority of them shall deem expedient, provided they are not contrary to law, or the constitution.

Article 12. The company shall in no case be concerned in any article but notes, bills of exchange, mortgages, stock of the United States, or bullion, and insuring against losses by fire, except in the case of debts due to the bank, when they shall be fully liable in taking any kind of security they can obtain.

Article 13. Ordinary discounts may be made by the president and any three directors, but the president and five directors shall be necessary for the purpose of transacting the general business of the company.

Article 14. Stock in the Hagers-Town bank may be transferred by the holder, in person, or by power of attorney, at the said bank, but all debts actually due to the company by a stockholder offering to transfer, shall be discharged before such transfer shall be made.

Article 15. Dividends of the profits of the company shall be made at the end of the first year, and half yearly thereafter, and at the end of every three years a dividend of surplus profit shall be made.

Article 16. The books, papers, correspondence, funds, and every transaction of the company, shall at all times be freely open to the inspection of the directors.

Article 17. A majority of the directors may, at any time, call a general meeting of the stockholders for objects relative to the interests of the company, they giving six weeks notice in the public prints, and expressing in such notice, the points or subjects to be deliberated upon at such meeting.

Article 18. In case the whole of the shares (except those reserved for the use) shall not be subscribed, on the days for taking subscriptions as aforesaid, the board of directors may open the subscriptions again, at such time and place, or places, as they or a majority of them may think proper, first giving six weeks notice of the same in the public prints.

Article 19. Whenever the state shall become a stockholder, to the amount of twenty thousand dollars, of the shares reserved, and shall have paid up that sum to the bank, she shall be entitled to appoint one director.

Article 20. Before the president and directors shall act as such, they shall take an oath, or affirmation, that they will faithfully, diligently and honestly perform the duties of their station; and the other officers of the bank, shall take a similar oath or affirmation, and shall give bond with security, to the satisfaction of the board of directors, for the faithful discharge of their duties in their several stations.

Article 21. All notes offered for discount in the said bank, by any person or persons, shall, on the face thereof, be made negotiable at the Hagers town Bank, and when the drawer shall not reside in Hagers-town, such note shall be made payable at the house of some person in Hagers-town, and notice given by the proper servant of the bank at such house, that such note hath become due, shall be, to all intents and purposes, held and considered to be as completely binding on the drawer and endorsers, as if notice had been personally served on each of them.

Article 22. And as the agricultural, manufacturing and commercial interests of Washington and the adjoining counties, will be greatly benefited by this institution, it is believed and expected, that the legislature will (as they have heretofore done in similar cases) grant a charter for incorporating the said company, and confirming, making legal and binding the several articles and regulations before mentioned, with such other provisions, as to the legislature may seem proper, provided they shall not be inconsistent with the articles of this agreement.

The board of directors are hereby directed to present a petition to the legislature for this purpose, with a draught of an act of incorporation, agreeable to the principles herein laid down; they are hereby directed also, to petition for, and endeavor to obtain in their charter or act of incorporation, a power for the said company to insure against losses by fire.

Given under our hands, this day of 1807. N. E. It is believed, that not more than ten or fifteen dollars a share will be wanted to constitute a sufficient capital for the first year; and if the shares are all subscribed, it is presumed that not more than twenty or twenty five dollars a share will ever be wanted or called for.

Baltimore and Reister's Town TURNPIKE ROAD COMPANY. NOTICE.

THE president and managers require the payment of the fourth and last installment of five dollars on each share of stock, on Monday the 16th day of March next.

JACOB & WM. NORRIS. February 3

This day is finished, AN ADDITION OF 6000 Spelling Books,

From the 4th and last English edition. BY LINDLEY MURRAY. Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c. &c.

The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowels and diphthongs, whether short, long, middle or broad.

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the pronunciation of Walker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book—and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.

2000 copies of a New Spelling Book, called THE PHILADELPHIA DILBERT'S SPELLING BOOK, IMPROVED.

The present edition being on the same plan of a late Glasgow publication (with considerable improvements) is confidently recommended to the serious attention of teachers, parents and guardians.

On Hand, A general assortment of SCHOOL BOOKS and STATIONARY—which will be sold on accommodating terms to those who buy for retail.

All kinds of Book and Job Printing, Commercial and Law Blanks, &c. &c. executed in the neatest manner at the established prices, by GEORGE DOBBIN & MURPHY, No. 10, Baltimore-st. opposite Centre market. Dec. 5

P. DAWSON, GABRIEL THOMAS. December 6 [9]

To the Voters of the City and County of Baltimore.

THE subscriber being encouraged by a number of the disinterested supporters of the candidates, at the late election, is induced respectfully to renew his solicitations for your suffrages at the next election for the office of Sheriff. He returns his grateful acknowledgments to those friends who interested themselves for him in his late attempt, and assures them, that their generous support has excited those sentiments that link gratitude to kindness; and he flatters himself that by a continuation of their friendship, and the patronage of his fellow citizens generally, he will be enabled to obtain the office; and, if successful, will endeavor by rectitude of conduct, to give general satisfaction.

Ten Dollars Reward,

LOOK OUT!

RAN away from the office of the American, yesterday morning, after neglecting to serve a great number of subscribers to this paper in his usual round, JOHN BROWN, carrier of the American for Old-Town. He is nearly 16 years of age; about five feet ten inches high; has flaxen hair, a fair complexion, and red and full cheeks: His face is rather round than long; he does not frown, but somewhat plausibly. He was found yesterday morning in Old-Town. It is believed that he has made the best of his way to Frederick-town, being the son of George Brown Miller, in the vicinity of that place. He had on a pair of linen's and pantaloons; stripes (the stripes running cross-wise) and a new hat, good shoes and stockings. Whoever will apprehend the said boy and bring him to the Printing-Office of the American, or secure him in any jail, so that his master gets him again, shall have, if taken in the city of Baltimore, five dollars; and if out of the county the above reward.

N. B. Those who harbor John Brown, or his relatives, friends or strangers to him, may depend on being prosecuted with the utmost rigor that the law will justify.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

WHEREAS a certain John Lewis, son of Thomas Lewis, (also Lewis) of the city of Baltimore, about the 10th of October, 1805, entered at Tobacco, on board the schooner Hazard, Captain Joseph Callender, of Edenton, to return to the United States, and has not since been heard of.

This is to give notice, that the above reward will be given by the subscriber, to any person giving satisfactory information, so that he may be found. He is about 15 years old, very cross-eyed, and excessively stupid.
