TROM the farm of the subscriber, the 11th inst. lying on the head of South River, Anna Arundel County, Maryland, in consequence of an engagement with their overseer, two young Negro Men, brothers, DAVID and BEN. Havid the elder brother, a mulattto, aged 22, five feet six or eight inches high, well made, a pleasant countenance, speaks quick, and walks briskly; he has a scar under his right eye, occasioned a few years past, from a blow received from the overseer, and had, I believe, when he absconded, several other wounds received the day he made his escape. Ben, ared 20, about 5 feet 6 or 8 inches high. a dark mulatto, stout and well made, his countenance more surly than that of his brother, has occasionally an impediment in his speech, and the mark of a cherry on one of his cheeks, which is not at this time so blooming as in the months of May and June.

Their clothing when they eleped, consisted, each, of a white country cioth jacket and trow. sers, a remarkite osnaburg shirt, white woollten stockmen, and coarse leather shoes, with mails in them. It is very probable they may have changed their clothes, as they have a brother living in Annapolis, blacksmith, by the name of Wil-Biam Prout, and also a brother in Bal impre, Richard Prout, both free; David has also a wife living in-Annapolis, at Mr Higiprothom's Any person apparthending said Negroes, with-In ten miles of the city of Annapoles, shall be centified to a reward of 20 dodars; if at the distance of o or 40 miles, within the state, 49 dollars, and it taken without the state a reward of 100 dollars shall be given .- The said Negroes to be brought home or secured in the Annapolis jani.

This day is finished, AN ADDITION OF 6000 Spelling Books,

From the 4th and last English edition. BY LINDLEY MUREAY: Author of Englist Crammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercises, &c. &c. The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds. &c.

The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner considerable aid in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their accent, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of rowers and dipthongs, whether short, long, middle or

The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscelianeous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.

The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson, and the and a large Cellar, &c .- There is also a good | pronunciation of Waiker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book-and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute. Also just received,
