NOTICE.
THE subscriber means to apply to the Judges of Baltimore County Court, or some one of them, for the benefit of an Act of Assembly, passed at N. Y. session, 1835, intitled, "An Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors."
JAMES DIMMITT,
Jan. 15

Thirty Dollars Reward
FOR apprehending SIMON, who is feigned on the morning of the 27th ult. from the subscriber at Westover, Anne Arundel county. He is a dark negro lad about 19 or 20 years of age about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, thin, rather bow-legged, of a lowering countenance and speaks flowly. He had on when he went away a light blue twilled jacket and overalls, also a blue cloth cap, bound with red. Whoever secures him in any jail, so that the subscriber may recover him again, shall be entitled to twenty dollars reward, and thirty if delivered to the subscriber at West River.
JOHN F. MERCER,
February 10

Ten Dollars Reward,
LOOK OUT!
RAN away from the office of the American yesterday morning, after neglecting to give a great number of subscribers to this paper in his usual round, JOHN BROWN, a native of the American for 10 years, is nearly 16 years of age, about 5 feet 10 inches high, has a fair complexion, and red and full cheeks. His face is rather round, though he does not speak so, but smiles pleasantly. He was taken yesterday morning in Old Town. It is believed that he has made the best of his way to Fredericktown, being the son of George Brown, miller, in the vicinity of that place. He had on a pair of linen cord pantaloons, striped (the stripes running off white) and down waistcoat, and brown cloth fustian jacket; a new pair of good shoes and stockings. Whoever will apprehend and bring him to the Printing Office of the American, or secure him in a jail so that his name gets him again, shall have, if taken in the city of Baltimore, five dollars; and if out of the county the above reward.

To the Public.
THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Co-partnerships, Advertisements, &c. putting up accounts and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of publicizing his services, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self-evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undischarged and unsettled.
Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers.
Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated.
Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment.

200 Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, living in Frederick county, (Vir.) near Millwood, and 15 miles from Winchester, on the 28th of September last, a white skin Negro man, out of the blacked complexion, called SAM DOYLE, who is black in complexion, upwards of six feet high, about 35 years of age. It is supposed he will change his name, and has, I am informed, procured a free pass, or an indenture from some of the free negroes. He is a stout and well built man, with a black face, has been much worked, fourteen or fifteen years old, about fourteen or fifteen hands high, with a new saddle and bridle, plated stirrups, which property I expect he will dispose of in order to get money.
I will give the above reward to any person, on delivering said runaway, male, slave and bridle, or on proof for the Negro, or male and saddle, separately. I expect he will make for Pennsylvania, perhaps the city of Philadelphia, or Baltimore, Maryland.

To the Voters of the City and County of Baltimore.
THE subscriber being encouraged by a number of the disinterested supporters of the candidates, at the late election, is induced respectfully to renew his solicitations for your suffrages at the next election for the office of Sheriff. He returns his grateful acknowledgments to those friends who interested themselves for him in his late attempt, and assures them, that their generous support has excited those sentiments that link gratitude to kindness; and he flatters himself that by a continuation of their friendship, and the patronage of his fellow citizens generally, he will be enabled to obtain the office; and if successful, will endeavor by rectitude of conduct, to give general satisfaction.

A Youth,
WHO has been steadily applying himself, for a considerable time, to a course of education suited to mercantile business, wishes to obtain a situation, on the usual terms, in some respectable counting house, or store, where a thorough knowledge of business may be acquired. If conduct uniformly attentive and exemplary, together with a taste for improvement, more than what is usual in pupils of this age, be indications that promise satisfaction to any employer, this youth may justly lay claim to that character.
The confidential direction of the parent who lives in the country, has requested that application may be made at the Academy, Tanmaun-street, to the subscriber.

DR. SHAW
OFFERS his professional services to the citizens of Baltimore.
No. 204, Market street.
March 3

JOHN LE TELLIER,
DENTIST,
In St. Paul's Lane, two doors above the Post Office.
OFFERS his services to the inhabitants of Baltimore and its vicinity in every branch of his profession, particularly in restoring the Teeth to their natural elegance without injuring their enamel by clamping them from that corrosive substance called Tarr, which adheres to them, it being of a yellow or black appearance, producing Scurvy, causing an offensive breath, decaying of the Teeth, or a wasting of the Gums and Bony process of the jaw, till they drop out.
Persons into whom nature has denied the satisfaction of lasting natural Teeth may have their loss supplied by artificial ones, set with such nicety and beauty, that they cannot be distinguished from natural, and of materials that will not change to an unnatural colour. Hollow ones he plugs so as to prevent them from being painful or further decaying for many years, and reinstates those with the Gums that are much depilated by carelessness or corroding medicines. Likewise extracts such as are too far gone to save.
C. L. TIFICATE.
Mr. LE TELLIER is possessed of unexpected abilities in the line of his profession, and is authorized by me to use the Patent Perpendicular Extracting Instruments in all places where the right is not disputed.
THOMAS BRUFF, Patentee.
He has DENTIFRICE of a very superior quality, which he has lately prepared.
