To the Voters of the City and County of Baltimore.
THE subscriber being encouraged by a number of the disinterested supporters of the candidates, at the late election, is induced respectfully to renew his solicitations for your suffrages at the next election for the office of Sheriff. He returns his grateful acknowledgments to those friends who interested themselves for him in his late attempt, and assures them, that their generous support has excited those sentiments that link gratitude to kindness; and he flatters himself that by a continuation of their friendship, and the patronage of his fellow citizens generally, he will be enabled to obtain the office; and, if successful, will endeavor by rectitude of conduct, to give general satisfaction.
October 11

A Youth,
WHO has been steadily applying himself, for a considerable time, to a course of education suited to mercantile business, wishes to obtain a situation, on the usual terms, in some respectable counting house, or store, where a thorough knowledge of business may be acquired. If conducted uniformly attentive and exemplary, together with a taste for improvement, more than what is usual in youth's years, he indicates that promise of satisfaction to any employer, this youth may justly lay claim to that character.
The confidential direction of the parent who lives in the country, has requested that application may be made at the Academy, Tanmang-street, to the subscriber
February 27

The Subscriber
IS under the painful necessity of announcing to the public his intention of petitioning the next Calvert county court, for an extension of the benefit of an act of assembly, entitled, an act for the benefit of insolvent debtors.
March 3

Ten Dollars Reward,
LOOK OUT!
RAN away from the office of the American, yesterday morning, after neglecting to serve a great number of subscribers to this paper in his usual round, JOHN BROWN, carrier of the American for Old-Town. He is nearly 16 years of age; about four feet ten inches high; has flaxen hair, a fair complexion, and red and full cheeks. His face is rather round than long; he does not speak fast, but somewhat plausibly. He was seen yesterday morning in Old-Town. It is believed that he has made the best of his way to Frederick-town, being the son of George Brown, miller, in the vicinity of that place. He had on a pair of Bennet's cord pantaloons; striped (the stripes running crosswise) swan-down waistcoat and brown cloth fustian jacket; a new hat, good shoes and stockings. Whoever will apprehend the said boy and bring him to the Printing-Office of the American, or secure him in any jail so that his master gets him again, shall have, if taken in the city of Baltimore, five dollars; and if out of the county the above reward.
N. B. Those who harbor John Brown, be they relatives, friends or strangers to him, may depend upon being prosecuted with the utmost rigor that the law will justify.
February 25
