ployed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and clearing accounts of Co-partnership, Advertisers, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of vices to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes aforesaid.

It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain un-liquidated and unsettled.
Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their
