AN ADDITION OF
6000 Spelling Books,
From the 4th and last English edition.
BY LESLIE MUTTON.
Author of English Grammar, Introduction to English Grammar, English Reader, Exercise, &c. &c.
The above work is comprehended under THREE general divisions. One of the principal objects of the FIRST PART, is, to teach an accurate pronunciation of the elementary sounds, &c.
The SECOND PART of the work affords the learner a complete and in pronunciation, as well as in orthography. The words of two syllables are not only classed in chapters, according to their nature, but they are arranged in sections, adapted to the sounds of vowels and diphthongs, whether short, long, middle or broad.
The THIRD PART consists of words less familiar to children than those of the preceding parts; of rules for spelling and pronunciation; and of miscellaneous chapters, calculated to give the learner a radical knowledge, and diversified views of the subject.
The lessons for spelling, in every section, are illustrated by short appropriate reading lessons. The orthography of Johnson and the pronunciation of Walker have been adopted in Murray's Spelling Book—and it is presumed they are authorities which few persons will be inclined to dispute.
Also just received,

RAN AWAY from the subscriber on the 6th inst. a negro girl named CLOE, of a dark yellow complexion, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, about 18 years of age; has a bold look, and is slender made. Had on when she went away, a dark Chambray Muslin dress; red under coat, and a Madras handkerchief around her head. She no doubt will wear her dress, as she has considerable more clothes than I am worth, which she must have kept. I presume amongst some of her negro associates. I purchased her a few weeks since of Mr. Henry Jackson, at the head of Market-st. and believe she was the property of Mrs. Yeiser, previous to his getting her. I have every reason to suppose her to be haunted by some free person of color, as she has been seen several times in the city since her departure.
