A DISSERTATION

Upon Heads and Beards!

A. C. D. LAVIGNE,

Has the honor of informing the Ladies and Gentlemen of Baltimore that his Shop, No. 6, South Gay-street, continues open every day in the week for the regulation of heads and beards.—The deep researches which he has made into this branch of natural philosophy exceed any thing hitherto known, and the principles of hair dressing which he has discovered, baffle all the rules of physiognomy invented by Lavater; whilst the smoothness of chin which his patent razors never fail to communicate to the "human face divine," has been so pleasing to the ladies that they have made it an indispensable requisite in their lovers and beaux that they must be shaved at Lavigne's.
