

Section, it shall be the duty of them or either of them to give notice in manner aforesaid, to the owner or owners, occupier or occupiers of said lots, grounds or enclosures, to have the said fifth or dirt forthwith removed; and if such owner or owners, occupier or occupiers, shall neglect or refuse to remove the same, he, she or they, shall be liable to pay ten dollars, and the further sum of two dollars for every day the said fifth or dirt shall remain contrary to said notice, and shall moreover defray and pay the expenses incurred in case such fifth and dirt shall be removed by any person employed under the authority and direction of said commissioners or either of them, which the said commissioners are hereby authorized to cause to be done on such neglect or refusal. And each city contable is hereby required to serve without delay any orders or precepts which shall or may be given them by any of the said commissioners of health. And in case no owner or occupier can be found, on whom to serve such notice, the said commissioners or either of them, are hereby authorized, after giving ten days public notice, in one or more of the newspapers published in the city of Baltimore, to have such nuisance removed at the expense of the city in the first instance, and the register shall keep an account of the expense incurred, to be recovered from the owner when ascertained and found. And whenever the said commissioners or any of them, shall have cause to suspect a nuisance, dangerous to the health of the city exists in any house, cellar or enclosure, they or any of them may demand entry therein in the day time, and if the owner or occupier thereof shall refuse or delay to open the same and to admit a free examination, he shall forfeit and pay for every such refusal, the sum of twenty dollars; and whenever the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall be of opinion that any private dock or docks are not sufficiently cleaned and deepened to that a nuisance may be thereby created in the warm and unhealthy season, and the health of the city thereby endangered, they or a majority of them, shall cause a notice to be served on the occupier or occupiers, owner or owners of juts and houses immediately adjoining such dock or docks, or situate or lying on the same, to deepen and clean said docks in such a manner as may be prescribed in such notice; and if such owner or owners, occupier or occupiers, shall neglect or refuse to deepen and clean the same, each person so offending shall forfeit and pay ten dollars, and the further sum of two dollars for every day he, she, or they shall neglect or refuse to deepen and clean the same, agreeably to the direction in said notice contained, and shall moreover defray and pay the expenses incurred, in case such dock or docks shall be deepened and cleaned under the authority and direction of said commissioners, or a majority of them, which they are hereby authorized to cause to be done, on such neglect or refusal as aforesaid; and each city contable is hereby required to serve without delay, any orders or precepts that shall or may be given them by any of the said commissioners.

IV. And be it enacted and ordained, That each of the commissioners of health shall have full power and authority to give an order for the reception of any person into the public hospital, afflicted with a contagious disease, dangerous to the community, who shall apply for the same: And whenever the said commissioners shall discover that a contagious disease exists in the city, they may advertise the citizens thereof, and by and with the advice and consent of the mayor, may advise the inhabitants thereof to remove, and to rent or cause to be erected, houses for the reception of poor persons, who may not be able to remove themselves, and to provide such of them as have not the means of subsisting themselves, with the real necessaries of life at a public charge, and to employ any messengers, assistants, or servants, to aid them in the discharge of their duty.

V. And be it enacted and ordained, That the commissioners of health, or a majority of them, shall have full power and authority to appoint and employ, with the approbation of the mayor, an attending physician and nurses to the hospital, and to provide medicine, meats, drinks, bedding, and all other articles which may be requisite for the comfort and accommodation of the sick, at the cost of the patient, or at the public charge, as the case may require, and to contract with, and appoint a suitable person to superintend said hospital, and to establish such rules and regulations for the government of the said hospital, as to them may appear proper and necessary.

VI. And be it enacted and ordained, That whenever the mayor shall receive a report from the board of health, or other well grounded information, that any contagious disease rages in any place on the continent, with which the citizens of Baltimore may have communication, the mayor may, and he is hereby authorized to issue a proclamation, forbidding the entrance of all persons or things coming by land or water from such infected place, into the city, or within three miles thereof, and the citizens from having any communication for at least fifteen days from the time of departure from such infected place. But the mayor may, and he is hereby authorized with the concurrence of any two of the commissioners of health, to make such exceptions to the general prohibition, by permitting the entrance of such persons or things as may to them appear safe and prudent; and every person willingly and knowingly offending against the direction of the said proclamation, shall forfeit and pay the sum of three hundred dollars.

VII. And be it enacted and ordained, That the mayor, the health officer and each and every commissioner of health, are hereby required, authorized and empowered to prohibit the landing or bringing into the city or precincts by land or water any damaged coffee, damaged hides, or other damaged or infected articles, which in his or their judgment may endanger the health of the inhabitants; and every person willingly or knowingly landing or bringing into the city, or precincts any of the said articles, whether contrary to or without any prohibition aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, the sum of three hundred dollars; and whenever the said commissioners, or either of them, shall find within the city or precincts, any damaged coffee, or damaged hides, or other damaged or infected articles, which in their judgment may endanger the health of the inhabitants, they or either of them shall order the same, by their precept in writing to be removed therefrom to any distance not exceeding three miles, and if the person or persons owning or having charge of such articles shall not comply with such order within six hours thereafter, every person so offending shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for every such neglect, and the sum of twenty dollars for every hour the same shall the register so remain.

VIII. And be it enacted and ordained, That all necessary expenses incurred by the said commissioners of health, in the discharge of the duties herein required, shall be defrayed by the corporation; and the commissioners of health, or a majority of them, may with the consent of the mayor, draw on the register of the city from time to time for such sums as may be requisite to carry into effect the duties herein enjoined upon them; and they shall whenever thereto required lay a detailed statement of their accounts before the mayor, and annually before the city council; and if at any time any of the said commissioners of health shall remove out of the city, so as to neglect his duty, such commissioner's salary shall be forfeited and his office shall become vacant.

IX. And be it enacted and ordained, That there be appointed annually a health officer who shall have power with the consent and approbation of the mayor to employ an assistant, and that it shall be the duty of the said health officer and his assistant, to carry into execution the quarantine regulations; and the said health officer during the months of quarantine, shall give his attendance at Fort M'Henry, every day from eight o'clock in the morning until six o'clock in the evening, if not otherwise engaged in the discharge of his duty as health officer, and enter in a book, to be by him provided and kept for that purpose, all marine intelligence which he may be able to obtain, and of which he is hereby directed to make full inquiry of the masters of all vessels that may arrive at the quarantine ground, and such entries shall be made at or before twelve o'clock at noon, and at or before six o'clock in the evening; and the said book shall be kept at his office at Fort M'Henry, open to the examination of every person during the hours of his attendance; and when any vessel shall arrive and be put under quarantine, the letters on board such vessel shall be transmitted to the post office by the health officer, in such manner as the board of health may direct.

X. And be it enacted and ordained, That the health officer is hereby directed to visit all vessels, immediately on their arrival, wind and weather permitting, coming from beyond sea, or places where the mayor may suspect a contagious disease to exist, yearly and every year from the last of April to the first of November; and where it shall appear to him necessary, detain the same at the quarantine ground under the regulations herein after mentioned.

XI. And be it enacted and ordained, That all vessels coming from either of the Indies, the coast of Africa or South-America, or any port or place in the Mediterranean, or the sea or the waters connected with the same, to the eastward of the Straits of Gibraltar, including all and every other port or place on the western side of Spain, as far as Cape St. Vincent, from the first of May to the first of November, shall perform a quarantine of one day, during which time the health officer shall pay them at least two visits, wind and weather permitting, and if in his opinion a further detention be necessary, he shall oblige the same to continue their quarantine not exceeding ten days; and in all such cases the health officer shall give a certificate to the master or captain of the vessel, signed with his name, expressing the number of days the said vessel is to ride quarantine; and the health officer is hereby enjoined to pay another visit to said vessel, before the expiration of her quarantine, and if necessary, continue the same any number of days not exceeding five days for each quarantine, and no such vessel shall leave the quarantine ground until she shall have obtained permission in writing from the health officer to do so, under the penalty of five hundred dollars, to be paid by the person having charge of such vessel.

XII. And be it enacted and ordained, That if the master or other person having command of any vessel, bound to the port of Baltimore, having on board any person disordered with any contagious disease, or coming from any sickly port or place without a clear bill of health, shall bring his vessel, or suffer or permit the same to be brought nearer to the port of Baltimore than the quarantine ground, or shall land or bring on shore, or cause or suffer to be landed or brought on shore any such infected person or any part or parcel of his or her goods or effects, or any other goods until he has obtained a license or permit to do so from the health officer or his assistant, such master or other person having charge of such vessel shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of three hundred dollars.

XIII. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any master or other person having the command of any vessel at the time of inquiry by the aforesaid health officer or his assistant, shall have on board any person infected as aforesaid, and shall knowingly conceal the same, or shall not make a true and just discovery to the health officer or his assistant, of the state of health of all and every person on board from the time the said vessel departed from the port or place whence she last sailed, to the time of said inquiry, and of all other particulars necessary for the health officer or his assistant to know respecting the premises, such master or other person having the command of such vessel, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, the sum of three hundred dollars.

XIV. And be it enacted and ordained, That from and after the first day of May to the first day of November, yearly, and every year, the pilot or other person having the command of any vessel, coming from any foreign port or place, and all other vessels coming from places where the mayor may suspect a contagious disease to exist, shall bring such vessel to the quarantine ground, and if any pilot or other person having command as aforesaid, shall bring such vessel nearer the city than the above mentioned place (which shall be a mile at least below the fort) or he or any person on board shall leave such vessel and come within the city or precincts of Baltimore before the health officer hath been on board and given him or them permission in writing, he or they shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of one hundred dollars; and if any person shall go on board or have communication in any manner otherwise than by speaking with any such vessel, and the persons on board, before he hath obtained permission from the health officer in writing, he shall forfeit and pay for every such offence three hundred dollars, and be compelled to remain on board during the quarantine, under the same restrictions with the crew; and during the time any vessel is ordered to perform quarantine, it shall not be lawful for any person on board to leave such vessel without permission from the health officer in writing; and every person so offending, shall forfeit and pay three hundred dollars.

XV. And be it enacted and ordained, That if any pilot shall have knowledge that there is on board any vessel that he undertakes to pilot, any person sick with the plague or any other contagious disease (and it is hereby declared to be his duty to make due inquiry thereof) and shall pilot such vessel above the quarantine ground, he shall forfeit and pay five hundred dollars; and no pilot shall leave a vessel which he hath piloted, until the quarantine of such vessel be completed (unless to proceed down the bay) in protection of his business; and if any pilot shall leave a vessel, shall come into the city without permission in writing of the health officer, he shall forfeit three hundred dollars.

XVI. And be it enacted and ordained, That no vessel arriving from the ports or places enumerated in the seventh section of this ordinance, in the months of June, July, August, September and October, loaded with coffee or other articles liable to damage or putrefaction, shall come up into port, but such cargoes shall be landed and aired, or discharged into other vessels while remaining in the river, or in the bays—within and as near to Love's Point, as may be convenient with safety, except a special permission is granted under such vessel to come into port, by any two of the commissioners of health, with the approbation of the mayor. (In consequence of no circumstance appearing whereby the health of the city may be thereby endangered)—And should any part of said cargo be damaged, or in such a state as the health officer may conceive would endanger the health of the city, if admitted therein, he may cause the same to be landed at the Lazaretto, under such regulations as may be established for the government of the same, and the said cargo shall remain in the Lazaretto until it shall be sufficiently aired, dried and purified, and it shall not be removed until the health officer shall give a permit in writing for the removal: And the health officer may cause all vessels, importing such cargoes, and the bedding and clothing of the crew thereof, to be cleaned, aired and purified, while lying at the quarantine ground, before he grants them a permit to come up to the city; and the health officer may permit vessels to perform quarantine within Love's Point, where, in his opinion, the health of the city will not be endangered—And any master or owner of any vessel, loaded as aforesaid, offending against any provisions of this section, shall forfeit and pay five hundred dollars.

XVII. And be it enacted and ordained, That it shall be the duty of every master or other person having the charge of a vessel subjected to quarantine, and especially permitted to come into port, immediately, on discovering that any part of the cargo is in a damaged condition, to give information thereof to the health officer, and to cease discharging until the health officer shall have examined the same, and in default thereof, such master or other person shall forfeit and pay three hundred dollars: And the health officer is required, if it shall appear upon him necessary, either to cause the vessel to be removed to the quarantine ground, there to discharge the damaged goods into the Lazaretto, or shall cause the said damaged goods to be sent thither in lighters, to be acted with as is preferable in the sixth section of this ordinance; and if any damaged goods shall be landed from such vessel, contrary to the directions of the health officer, the master or other person having charge of such vessel, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars.

XVIII. And be it enacted and ordained, That all such persons as may arrive in a sickly or disordered state shall be sent to the Hospital, or such Lazaretto as may be provided for them (which shall be as near the quarantine ground as possible) and the board of health are hereby empowered to furnish such assistance as they may stand in need of and supply beds, bed clothes, provisions, and such other articles as may be found necessary for the accommodation of the sick: And if any such disordered person shall leave the Hospital or Lazaretto before having obtained permission from the attending physician in writing and shall come into the city, he or she shall forfeit and pay fifty dollars.

XIX. And be it enacted and ordained, That all fines and forfeitures incurred by this ordinance, shall be appropriated as follows, viz. one half to the informer, and the other half to the use of the corporation; provided, that no officer appointed by virtue of this ordinance shall receive any part of the fines and forfeitures therein imposed.
