PANTHEON. The following questions will be discussed at the Polemic Society on Saturday next: Can the conduct of General Wilkinson, as stated, be justifiable? Is it politic to prohibit the commercial intercourse between this country and St. Domingo? Which is the most prevalent passion in the heart of Man—the love of beauty, wealth or merit? It is to be remarked, that although the three foregoing questions were published for discussion last week, and upwards of an hundred gentlemen were present, but one ventured an opinion. Each quest on opens a wide field of discussion, and it is earnestly hoped, that on the ensuing Saturday, there will be more speakers present. The Polemic Hall has been fitted up for the comfortable reception of ladies who would wish to honor it with their presence. Debate every Saturday evening. The chair to be taken as soon after 7 o'clock as the company assemble. Doors to be open at half past 6 o'clock. Admittance 12 1/2 cents. march 26 d3t

Notice is hereby given, To the mean fellow, who some days ago left a letter at the post-office without the signature of his name to it, addressed to T. T. for this base and malicious purpose of propagating lies on me, and fruitless the minds of such persons as should be led by their dignity to attend either to his praise or censure, that he has missed his aim, and at least thus far, has turned his own weapons of war a purpose, and a miserable reptile in the dark, whose strivings to sting, honest men laugh at. If, after this, he should want to make another dart of such a nature, he is advised to put on another pair of spectacles, and earnestly cautioned to look out well who he aims at, lest he may come tonight an honest man's heel, and deservingly be crushed down in the filthy mud he creeps and gathers his poison in. To the Public. THE Subscribers who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and carrying accounts of Co-partnership, Adventures, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undigested and unsettled. Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers. Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated. Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment. H. O. HEBERT, No. 6, North Calvert-street, directly opposite the Mechanics' Bank. N. B. Writings of every description neatly and accurately copied. Dec. 22 eoz
