March 2, lat. 32 49 long 69, fehr. Experiment, of Weltport, 5 days from Newbern, N. C. for Barbadoes. March 3, lat. 24 long. 70, floop Phebe, Authory, 21 days from Mastinique for Providence. The Englith frigat Caroline, captain Renier, of 35 guns, came in the roads of Latavia 18th Oft. and captured a Dutch frigate of equal force, after a thort engagement.

The fehir Wathington, Edes, has arrived at Holmes's Hoie, from Batleterre, Guad. - Left there Feb. 21, Dolphin, Stanwood, of and for Cape Ann, in 3 days; Jime, Miles, of and for New haven, in 5; the brig Jane, Parsons, sailed on the 1.11h for Philadelphia. - Markets dull. Admiral Cochrane on the 8th Feb. passed Basseterie with 3 line of bartle ships and 3 frigates, so near as to be fired at from the ports. F.b 23, Antigua bearing E S.E. 5 leagues diffrat, was boarded be an English 2 gun priva cer, belonging to Antigua, all negroes, detained an hour. She informed that the sch'r Mason's Daughter, of Beverly, was at Nevis, on the 20th and that there had been a gale a N. W. which had done much damage. Spoke on the 23d, brig Cile Jackson, of and for New-York, last from Antigua, where she had be n carried in; left there sch'r Lark, Thompson, to fail 22d. for Lofton, I. Lewis, supercargo, who had been carried in and detain d 10 days, and permitted to sail, with the priviledge of paying all expences. I observed in the Centinel, of the 11th ult. mention made of many privateers from St. Batthelomews, of which I have no doubt, but as to the r capturing American vesfels, and sending them to Guadaloupe, I have only to observe, that none arrived whilst I was there, which was 30 days; but the Englith were capturing all that came in their way, and sending them to Antigua, and if cleared, make them pay all expences.

The brig Greyhound, Kilpatrick, 39 days froning demergra, has arrived at Home's Hole; alfo, brig Sally, of Bolton from Havanna; Morning Star, of Portland, from Martinique, and 2 ships from India belonging to Salem, 4 brigs and 8 schooners.

Charleston, March 10. We understand that captain Macomb, of the corps of engineers, has been here these two months waiting for the commissioners of state to locare and deliver over to him, for the United States, the scites for fortifications, which the state lately ceded to the United States-but. owing to some difficulty in obtaining the map on which these scites are particularly delineated, we are informed the commissioners are prevented from proceeding. Colonel Williams, commandant of the corps of engineers, an officer of distinguished merit, is expected here daily, for the purpole of making arrangements for the defence of the harbor .-We hope that he may not be detained, on his arrival, for the delivery of the scites. The packet brig Hope, Fash, from New-York, for Savanna, went ashore 35 miles north of Cape Hatteras, on the 22d ult. the vessel is entirely loll, cargo faved. March 11. The stage arrived last night without the northern mail; three are now due. From the immense quantity of rain which has failen, the country is literally overflowed; all the bridges are carried away, and the back water in the swamps has no outlet; it is therefore probable that it will be many days before we shall receive a mail. Arrived, ship Pocahontas, Howland, Lisbon, 45 days; schooners Three Friends, Sears, Trinidad, 16; Sea-Flower, Catheart, Satilla, (Geo.) 23 stoop Rolla, Fuller, Providence,

C prain Howland, on the 3d of February, in lat. 22, 56, long 35, 40, palled a fleet of 250 fail of British merchantmen, steering to the February 6, sell in with 117 last more, from Cork, bound to Barbados—was boarded
