FRIDAY, APRIL 5, 1857.

The number will remain as usual the Boston anonymous letter, a translation of which we gave in Wednesday's paper...

This Bradford has been the most audacious, infolent advocate and a libelous liar, that has defiled the Ohio! He presided the confederator, and pronounced it—'ad—'—a nonsense to attempt to appease him...

The circumstances, which so fully elucidate the conduct and character of Bradford, we have from the most respectable authority. Such expostions of facts will better enable the good people of the United States correctly to appreciate those amiable positions which have been offered from Boston by Bradford at N. Orleans...

On Friday last, Capt. Walter Burtin, g. Adlescamp to Gen. Wilkinson, and then this city from Vera Cruz...

Bradford, unable to evade himself from the charge of prostrating the goods, begs of the question by the breaking exercise, that he dare not repel the 'paragraph' from his superior officer...
