In Baltimore County Court, March 23d, 1837.

ON application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of John G. Beck of said county, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John G. Beck has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John G. Beck at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having procured to the said court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act...

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John G. Beck, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months successively, before the tenth day of October next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the court-house in the said county, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the said tenth day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John G. Beck then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.

To the Public.

THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and closing accounts of Partnerships, Adventures, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undusted and unsettled.

Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers. Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated. Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment.
