The Grand Master of Malta,

A remarkably fine Jact, brought direct from Malta, by Commodore Rodgers, will stand to cover ladies and jennies during the ensuing season, at Hampton, the country seat of General Readey, at the moderate price of ten dollars each, for the season, for Mares, and one hundred dollars for ea. in Juno.

The Grand Master is now 6 years old, and is allowed by the best judges, to be the largest and best designed Jact ever seen in this country. To avoid trouble, the money must be sent with the mare or jenny.

JOHN GREEN, Manager.

P. S. The best of clever passage may be had; but no liability for escapes or acid, etc.

N. B. In the first advertisement this difference of price between Mares and Jennies was omitted, which palpable mistake is now corrected as above.

Charles Chequiere

BEGS leave to inform his friends particularly, and the public in general, that he has opened

A Broker's Office,

In Water-street, opposite the office of the Baltimore Insurance Company, and having given the most respectable security for his faithful conduct, he flatters himself with a hope of receiving a portion of public patronage.

He buys and sells all kinds of Stock, Tobacco, and other Merchandise, Bills of Exchange,

Annuities, &c. Charters and procures Freight for Vessels; and transacts every other species of Commercial Brokerage.

Being convinced of the advantages that would result to the citizens of Baltimore, by concentrating information respecting real property for sale or to lease, he purposed keeping a Register, which all persons desirous of selling, purchasing or leasing, will find a benefit in consulting.
