April 13

To the Public.
THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters in this city, for the purpose of arranging and settling accounts of Co-partnership, Adventure, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self-evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undisturbed and unsettled.

Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers.

Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or solvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated.

Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment.

H. O. HEBERT,
No. 6, North Calvert-street, directly opposite the Mechanics' Bank.

N. B. Writings of every description neatly and accurately copied.

The Grand Master of Malta,
A remarkably fine Jack, brought direct from Malta, by Commodore Rodgers, will stand to cover mares and jennies during the ensuing season, at Hampton, the country seat of General Ridgely, at the moderate price of ten dollars each, for the season, for Mares, and one hundred dollars for each Jenny.

The Grand Master is now 3 years old, and allowed by the best judges, to be the largest and handsomest Jack ever seen in this country. To avoid trouble, the money must be sent with the mares or jennies.

JOHN GREEN, Manager.
P. S. The best of clover pasturage may be had, but no liability for escapes or accidents.

N. B. In the first advertisement this difference of price between Mares and Jennies was omitted, which palpable mistake is now corrected as above.
March 26
