

20 Dollars Reward,

FOR apprehending and securing in jail, so that I can get them again, two French Boys who ran away last night and are it expected making for Baltimore, the one called SABBAY, 5 feet 5 inches high, stout built, black hair, ear bobs in his ears, and marked with the small pox; speaks English tolerably well. The other about 5 feet 3 inches high, rather thin, black hair and very much marked by the small pox, speaks little or no English; his name is PETER BEARTRIAN. They have been for some time working at the Cooper's trade, and will no doubt seek for employment at the same trade. They had a variety of clothing, and will it is expected change them as well as their names. There are strong reasons to suspect they have gone in company with four or five Frenchmen who have been for some time loitering about in this neighborhood and are also gone off.

All persons are cautioned at their peril against employing or harboring either of the above named lads.

I will give the above reward for securing Sabby alone.

JOSEPH LEO, Georgetown

N. B. He is a Cooper by trade.
