COMMUNICATION.

From an interview had with a number of Stockholders of the Mechanics' Bank of Baltimore, I am induced to offer for publication a declaration, the following list of names, as a consideration to be voted for at the ensuing election, under a hope and belief that they will be generally supported, and if elected, will give entire satisfaction as directors of that institution, viz:—

James Mosher,
William Gwynn,
Robert Cary Long,
Owen Dorsey,
George Warner,
Wm. McDonald,
Thomas Steppard,
William Jackson,
William Jones,
William Jenkins,
Jacob Hoffman,
William Jessop,
Christian Mayer,
Adam Welsh,
Peter Little.

The names of William Jenkins and William Jones are particularly recommended to the attention of the Stockholders under an impression that the principal of rotation will not be lost sight of, and that these Gentlemen are well qualified both from experience and disposition to render essential services at that board. They are both decided friends to the manufacturing interests of our country, have served regular apprenticeships to machine professions, and are both immediately interested in carrying them out. The activity and exertions of those interested in this institution, are claimed upon the present occasion—and it is to be hoped the general advantage that may be gained by partial change will excite an inquiry into the characters and qualifications of the new candidates now offered.
A STOCKHOLDER.

A Tract upon Conversion;

WITH AN APPENDIX,
Containing six important QUESTIONS, with ANSWERS, on the KNOWLEDGE of the FORGIVENESS of SINS
By the Rev. JAMES KEMP, D. D.
Rector of Great Choptank Church, Dorchester county, Maryland.

This work is addressed to sober and serious christians, in hope that it may tend to counteract certain erroneous opinions which have prevailed upon the subject thereof, and which have been artfully cherished by various means incompatible with the true spirit of christianity; such as loud preaching, rapturous singing, violent prayer, frantic gestures, and other improper methods: Or, as a pious and orthodox preacher of the Methodist society terms it, "ranting extravagance, abominable practices, such as jumping, pointing, dancing, boring, scratching, jerking," &c.
See Rev. Mr. Roberts's sermon, preached before the last conference.
