MONTGOMERY'S POEMS,
Embellished with an elegant engraving.
THE volume contains some of the most beautiful poetry in the English language, and is a model of mechanical execution, may vie with most productions which have been issued from the American press. The English edition sells for six shillings (binding with no engraving, while this book which is super or to it, is charged one Dollar only). The English and New-York critics consider this volume to be the first modern production which has yet appeared.
In the press, and will be published by
JOHN HAGERTY,

In Baltimore County Court,
March 25d, 1807.
ON application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of John G. Beck of said county, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John G. Beck has resided the two preceding years within the State of Maryland, prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John G. Beck at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said County Court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act.
It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John G. Beck, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months, before the tenth day of October next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the court-house in the said county, at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the said tenth day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John G. Beck then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.

One Hundred Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the subscriber, a Young Negro Man, named TOM. He left most Mr Charles Carroll's, near Hagers-Town, Maryland, on the morning of the 21st instant. He is tolerable black; twenty or twenty-one years of age; about five feet six inches high; well made, but rather slender, and has a good countenance. Had on a brown cloth roundabout, striped swansdown waistcoat, and corduroy overalls, all new; a good felt hat, shoes and stockings. He took with him two or three cotton shirts, as many silk handkerchiefs, four cravats, a pair of new cotton and two or three pair of old woollen and thread stockings. For apprehending and securing the above fellow in any jail and giving me immediate notice thereof by post or otherwise, so that I get him again, I will give 20 dollars; if taken within a hundred miles of my residence in Hampshire county, Virginia, near Old-Town, Maryland, or of Mr Joseph Spriggs, in Washington county, Maryland, and delivered to either, I will give fifty dollars; and a greater distance the above reward, one hundred dollars.
