Mansion-House Hotel, South 34 STREET, PHILADELPHIA.

W. RENSHAW,

TNDER the impressions of the most lively gratitude, makes his acknowledgments so the public for the patronage he has received in this establishment at the MANSION HOUSE HOTEL—and respectfully informs them, that he has recently fitted up a house in additions directly opposite the Hotel, in Third-street, which enables him to make up FIFTY BEDS, in a comfortable manner; and that his house is provided with every thing necessary for the entertainment of LADIES & GENTLEMEN TRAVELLING, and others who may please to honor him with their commands.

He further begs to assure his friends that his WINES and LIQUORS are of the first quality, and the accommodations such as will (he trusts) give general satisfaction.

The above Hotel is commodious and agreeably situated for business, being near the Public Banks and the Custom-House, and from its being unconnected with any other building, and having large grounds neatly laid out with gravel walks and well shaded with trees and ahrubs, is allowed by every one to be far more pleasant, and healthy during the summer months, than any other in the city; the proprietor begs farther to assure the public, that no exertion on his part shall be wanting, to render the above in all respects agreeable to his customers, and hopes by his diligence and attention to merit a continuance of public favor.

N. B. The price for Gentlemen Boarding is fixed at $14 per day.

Good Stabling and Carriage Houses, with careful Grooms to attend.

The fishery on this place, in the sesson, is extremely profitable; and the shores are fined with wild fowl of all kinds. FORGIVENESS of SINS.

By the REV. JAMES KEMP, D.D.

Rector of Great Gioptank Church, Dorchester county, Maryland.

This work is addressed to sober and scrious christians, in hope that it may tend to counteract certain erroneous opinions which have prevailed upon the subject thereof, and which have been artfully cherished by various means incompatible with the true spirit of christianity; such as loud preaching, rapturous singing, violent prayer, frantic gestures, and other improper methods: Or, as a pious and orthodox preacher of the Methodist society terms it, "ranting extravagance, abominable practices, such as jumping, pointing, dancing, boring scretching, icrking, " &c.
