Valuable Lands, &c. for Sale ON THE 19th JUNE NEXT.

IN compliance with the will of Engelhard Teller, esq. lately deceased, will be sold at public auction, on the premises, at 12 o'clock, on the 19th June next, ALL that valuable PLANTATION whereon the deceased lately resided, containing about 331 1/2 acres, distant about 4 1/2 miles from the city of Baltimore, and adjoining the lands of Gen. Smith, Daniel Bowly, esq. and others. On this land are erected a comfortable Dwelling-House; a convenient stone Barn, 33 feet in width and 75 feet long; a Still-House, with two Stills; and a Spring-House, the lower part stone, the upper part brick; exclusive of several other tenements, and every other necessary out-house; good Apple and Peach Orchards, of excellent fruit; also, good kitchen gardens. About half the land is cleared the other half is young thriving wood; a considerable quantity of meadow, a constant stream of water running through it. The upland is kind for all sorts of grain. This property is a healthy, handsome, and pleasant situation. Also, at the same time and place will be sold at auction, as of record, All that well known valuable FARM, late the property of the deceased, called Grace's Quarter; situated in Middle-river Neck, at the conflux of Gunpowder-river and Salpetre creek, by which two waters it is almost surrounded. It contains about 424 acres of arable wood and meadow land. For fertility of soil, this place is equalled by few. To point out the number of natural advantages attending it, would far exceed the bounds of an advertisement. There is on it a good comfortable House, almost new, with Kitchen, Negro Quarter, Spring-House, with necessary out-houses, and a large frame Barn (erected in the summer of 1864) with stables, cow-houses, &c. underneath it. Likewise, two apple-orchards, two peach ditto, of the best of fruit, with cherry and plum-trees, and about 20 remarkably fine pear trees, from the fruit of which alone considerable sums have been made. In fact, no place in the country can be better situated, either for the grazier or planter, for nearly the whole of the farm can be put into meadow at a small expense. The fishery on this place, in the season, is extremely profitable; and the shores are lined with wild fowl of all kinds. It has the advantage of an elegant prospect of the river and adjacent country, and good water. The distance to Baltimore by land is 16 miles, and by water 4 or 5 hours sail. Persons disposed to purchase, are invited to view the above property. Both the said farms will be laid off and divided into smaller farms, to suit purchasers. Plans of the same will in a few days be left at the auction room of Mr. Thomas Chase. CATHARINE YEISER, Ex'rix. JOHN BORLAND, NICHOLAS BRICE, Executors. may 25 eodm

THE Subscriber, who has been employed by several respectable characters of this city, for the purpose of arranging and storing accounts of Co-partnerships, Adventures, &c. posting, examining and balancing Books of Accounts, takes this method of offering his services to, and of informing the public that he has opened an Office for the purposes stated. It is needless here to enumerate the many advantages to be derived from such an institution, as they are self-evident both to the merchant and the tradesman; particularly to those who from multiplicity of business or other causes suffer accounts to remain undischarged and unsettled. Captains of vessels and supercargoes will, in some cases, find it their interest to apply to the subscriber for the purpose of having their accounts arranged previous to their being presented to their employers. Accounts belonging to the estates of deceased or insolvent persons, dissolved co-partnerships, &c. fairly and accurately stated. Satisfactory references and proofs of the subscriber's abilities to perform what he undertakes will be given, if required, to such gentlemen as may have occasion for his services and will favor him with employment. RICHMOND, June 6. TRIAL OF AARON BURR. Circuit Court of the U. States for the 5th circuit and District of Virginia, Present JOHN MARSHALL, Chief Justice of the U. States, and CRAIG GRIFFIN, Judge of the District of Virginia.

WEDNESDAY, May 27. Mr. Hay stated to the Court, that all hopes of the arrangement which he had mentioned yesterday, were at an end for he had received a letter from Col. Burr's counsel, positively refusing to give any additional bail;—that he should therefore go on with his motion for commitment.—He observed, that he was ready to proceed with the evidence, in laying which before the Court, he should observe something like a chronological order. He should read first the depositions of such witnesses, as were absent and afterwards bring up such witnesses as were present, in such an order as to disclose all the events as they successively arose. Mr. Wickham stated that there were two distinct charges against Col. Burr: the first was a charge of misdemeanor for which Col. Burr had already entered into recognizance. The other was a charge of High Treason against the U. S. which was once proposed without success and is now again repeated. On this charge the U. States must substantiate two essential points: 1st: that there was an overt act committed; and 2ndly: that Col. Burr was concerned in it.—Every thing that does not bear upon these points is of course inadmissible. The course therefore laid down by the attorney for the U. S. is obviously improper. He proposes to examine his witnesses in a kind of chronological order. Col. B. requires that the evidence should be taken in strict legal order. The Court and even the opposite Counsel will see the propriety of observing this order. If the Attorney for the U. S. has affidavits to produce, let him first demonstrate that they have a right to produce them. We first call upon him to prove by strict legal evidence, that an overt act of Treason has been committed. If he cannot establish that one point, all the evidence which he can produce, is nugatory and unavailing. Mr. Hay had no doubt, that the gentleman would, if he could, suppress all the evidence; that although that gentleman had been so good as to prescribe for him the course he ought to pursue, he should still pursue his own course; and he would assure that gentleman, that he was almost the last person in the world, whose advice on the present occasion he would pursue. Mr. H. observed, that he could not consent to such a separation of the evidence, as that gentleman required; that he should lay all his evidence before the court; and that the court must separate for themselves. The two charges which are brought against Aaron Burr, are naturally and intimately blended. They form distinct parts of one great design. What that great design was, in all its bearings and ramifications, I am not absolutely certain. But I have always conceived, that before Mexico was invaded, New-Orleans was to be taken. How then is it possible to separate these two great allegations? This monstrous design consists of two great plots; both going on together; and both so strongly connected, that accomplishing the one is preparatory to accomplishing the other. If A. Burr's object was to plant his standards in Mexico, he was first to have seized the shipping and Banks of New-Orleans. We ask then, how can we separate line, by line, and word by word, the evidence produced to prove these two distinct allegations. The designs are connected; and the evidence is connected.

Mr. Burr rose to speak; when Mr. Hay proceeded to the following effect: I have a little more yet to say. If sir, exceptions are thus to be continually taken to the most common measures; if in this way every inch of ground is to be disputed, contrary to every practice that has prevailed in our country; instead of 10 hours or 10 days this trial will take up 10 years. What an extraordinary proceeding is this, sir! Why, sir, we are not to steer our course, even five inches without encountering some unusual difficulty or other!—And yet these gentlemen talk of precedents. And what, sir, is the precedent for this, that the counsel before an examining court is to be instructed how to bring out his evidence? I never saw such a thing done before; such a thing ought not to be done. It is novel in itself; it is inadmissible to be practised. Gentlemen may make motions as they please; but still not drive me from my purpose. I will or I will not produce my evidence, whether it pleases them or not.—And yet it is a poor compliment, indeed, that the gentlemen offered to the Bench, a homely thing or a witness says any thing which is irrelevant to the case, cannot be the court be trusted for these distinctions? Cannot they decide, whether this evidence is to be weighed, or that to be rejected? Do they distrust the judgment of the court? No, sir, they do not; but they wish to hamper us with an unending difficulty, which they can see in our path.—The present, sir, is a most serious allegation. It affects the life and character of the accused. He has conspired
