Mansion-House Hotel,

SOUTH 3d STREET, PHILADELPHIA
W. RENSCHAW,
UNDER the impressions of the most lively gratitude, he has received from the public for the patronage he has received in his establishment at the MANSION-HOUSE HOTEL—and respectfully informs them, that he has recently fitted up a house in addition directly opposite the Hotel, in Third-street, which enables him to make up FIFTY BEDS, in a comfortable manner; and that his house is provided with every thing necessary for the entertainment of LADIES & GENTLEMEN TRAVELLING, and others who may please to honor him with their commands.
He further begs to assure his friends that his WINES and LIQUORS are of the first quality, and the accommodations such as will (he trusts) give general satisfaction.
The above Hotel is commodious and agreeably situated for business, being near the Public Banks and the Custom-House, and from its being unconnected with any other building, and having large grounds neatly laid out with gravel walks and well shaded with trees and shrubs, is allowed by every one to be far more pleasant and healthy during the summer months, than any other in the city; the proprietor begs farther to assure the public, that no exertion on his part shall be wanting, to render the above in all respects agreeable to his customers, and hopes by his diligence and attention to merit a continuance of public favor.
N. B. The price for Gentlemen Boarding is fixed at $14 per day.
