BELLEVEUE.

THE subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he has opened a Place of Public Entertainment,
At BELLEVEUE, on the Hook's Town Road, about one mile from the city of Baltimore, in a situation which is acknowledged to afford one of the most commanding and beautiful prospects in the vicinity of this place. The Gardens are handsomely fitted up, with agreeable and pleasant walks, and the water and party of air are exceeded by no place in the surrounding country. To those who are accustomed to exercise on horseback, Belleveue offers an excellent baiting place, as the ride may be extended beyond it, and either going or returning, precisely in that situation which will naturally bring them to alight.
N. B. Rooms have been fitted up in a genteel style for the reception and accommodation of Boarders.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN,

That information has just been received at this office from the consul of the United States at Amsterdam, that he had taken charge of the money and other property belonging to the estate of Nathaniel Howey, a citizen of the United States, who died at Amsterdam on the 7th of November, 1806, and that he was ready to deliver over all the assets in his hands to the legal representative or representatives of the decease, agreeably to the laws of the United States in such cases.
The consul states that the said Nathaniel Howey was master of the ship Eliza, of Baltimore, Joseph Sterett and others, owners, at the time of his death, and that he belonged to the state of Maryland.

In Baltimore County Court

April 6th, 1807,

ON application to the Judges of the said County Court, by petition in writing of John Young of said County, praying the benefit of the "Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors," on the terms mentioned in the said act; a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition; and the said County Court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said John Young has resided the two preceding years within the state of Maryland prior to the passage of the said act; and the said John Young at the time of presenting his petition as aforesaid, having produced to the said Court, the assent in writing of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two-thirds of the debts due by him at the time of passing the said act.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, by the said court, that the said John Young (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers in the city of Baltimore, every other day for three months, before the tenth day of October next) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said County Court, at the court-house in the said county at nine o'clock in the forenoon of the said tenth day of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Young then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering up his property.
Signed,
By order,

A Tract upon Conversion;
WITH AN APPENDIX, Containing six important QUESTIONS, with ANSWERS, on the KNOWLEDGE of the FORGIVENESS of SINS.
By the Rev. JAMES KEMP, D. D.
Rector of Great Cloppan Church, Dorchester county, Maryland.
This work is addressed to sober and serious christians, in hope that it may tend to correct certain erroneous opinions which have prevailed upon the subject thereof, and which have been artfully cherished by various means incompatible with the true spirit of christianity; such as loud preaching, rapturous singing, violent prayer, frantic gestures, and other improper methods: Or, as a pious and orthodox preacher of the Methodist society terms it, "ranting extravagance, abominable practices, such as jumping, pointing, dancing, boring scratching, jerking," &c.
