TIENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere L thanks: to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundery of Messrs. Sower & Co in this city: -He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to sid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribe is, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. Pechen, for whom the handsome type is easting on which the work is to be print ad. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner dig sted and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which, the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers are considered and satisfactorily explained In a word, the publishers are confident it will prove to its readers a complete repository of useful and er tertaining knowledge.
