50 Dollars Reward.
RANAWAY yesterday from the subscriber a Negro DICK, a slave for life, commonly known in Baltimore by the name of Richard Barnett, a yellow fellow, about 21 or 22 years old, and about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, stout made. He has taken with him all his clothes—amongst which were one fine blue cloth coat with yellow buttons, one yellow nanken upper jacket, trimmed all round with blue tape, one pair of yellow nanken overalls, one tarpelin hat, the other part of his clothes cannot be so well described. He was born on Fell's Point, and brought up to the brick-making business.
He was seen yesterday on the Philadelphia strongly suspected that he is gone to Pennsylvthe abolition society. I will give 20 dollars if taken Holy Bible Explained.

HENRY S. KEATINGE returns his sincere thanks to those who have patronized the above work, and informs them that a delay in its publication has arisen in the wish to furnish the public with the first impression of an elegant type, now casting at the infant foundry of Messrs. Sower & Co. in this city: —He is now happy in having it in his power to add, that the letter is so far completed, as to enable him to promise that the work will be put to press in a few days. And to aid in presenting this valuable work with expedition to subscribers, H. S. K. has united himself in its publication with W. PECKIN, for whom the handsome type is casting on which the work is to be printed. In this work, the sacred writings are in the most pleasing and rational manner digested and illustrated, by way of Question and Answer; in which, the principal points controverted by modern unbelievers are considered and satisfactorily explained.

Abandoned from her Mother's House, ELIZABETH HAYWARD, a bright Mulatto Girl; she has a deplorable case of eyes; her clothes are a jacket and petticoat of brown Holland. The reason of my being particular in describing her is, that some well-disposed person may take her up and bring her home, and they shall receive, a reasonable reward. I am a free woman, was set free by Philip Thomas's will, in Market-street and Betsy, my daughter, is also free; she is a very bad girl, and I am resolved to break her or I will break her heart.
Now, citizens, I am about to inform you of another circumstance. She was bound out to old Mrs. Dukehart; she was very bad and Mrs. Dukehart being an old lady, she could not rule her, and so the old lady gave up her industries and she came home.
I forewarn all persons from harboring her on their peril.
